Service of Worship

Third Sunday in Lent

March 3, 2013

Eleven o'clock in the morning

☞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ☞

The season of Lent continues with an invitation to respond to God's call. In Isaiah, wisdom is personified as one in the streets who invites us to the fullness of God's banquet table. Paul's letter to the Corinthians reminds Christian disciples of their spiritual connection to Israel's exodus from Egypt and warns that they should not fall to the same temptations of their ancestors in the wilderness. In Luke's gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the fig tree, a pointed reminder that we are called to lives that bear fruit.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S OFFERING—Today's cash offerings and undesignated checks support the organization Just A Clean House. The organization was founded in 2005 to serve the Durham community, providing services that assist recovering addicts and Durham's homeless population in becoming successful, healthy, and productive members of our community. Just A Clean House offers recovery-based support in fully furnished homes, and is unique in providing a foundation based on family, acceptance, responsibility, faith, willingness, and honesty in a clean and sober, family-like living environment. They provide all meals and work to make each house feel like a home. To learn more, please visit www.justacleanhouse.com. You may also mail a check by March 15 to Duke Chapel, Attn: Beth Gettys Sturkey. Indicate JACH in the memo line.

BLACK CHURCH AND BLACK MOSQUE—Join the Duke Faith Council on Monday, March 4, at 7:00 p.m. in Goodson Chapel for a conversation on race and Muslim-Christian relations. Speakers include Duke Divinity School professor Rev. Dr. William Turner; Muslim scholar from the University of Southern California, Dr. Sherman Jackson; and civil rights expert from Vassar College, Dr. Lawrence Mamiya. This program honors the work of the late Rev. Dr. C. Eric Lincoln, Methodist minister, civil rights activist, and professor of religion and culture at Duke University in the 1970s and 80s. He authored the groundbreaking book Black Muslims in America. Both Turner and Mamiya, who were students of Lincoln, will share personal stories of their work with him. This event is part of the University's commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the first black students.

LABYRINTH—On Tuesday, March 5, visitors are invited to walk the Labyrinth in Duke Chapel from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. The Labyrinth, a 40-foot circle containing a winding path, is an ancient spiritual tradition in many faiths. The Labyrinth is self-guided and takes 30 minutes to an hour to complete. The Chapel is co-sponsoring this event with the Congregation at Duke Chapel.

COLLECTION FOR SPRING BREAK MISSION TRIP—The mission team traveling to Honduras on March 9 is collecting full-size sheets and pillows to donate to the ministry the team will be serving. Please contact Bruce Puckett at bruce.puckett@duke.edu if you have new or lightly used sheets you would like to donate.

ROSSINI CONCERT TODAY—This afternoon at 4:00 p.m., Rossini's Petite Messe Solennelle (Little Solemn Mass) will be performed by the Chamber Choir of the Choral Society of Durham. Despite its title, this piece is bursting with joyous, ebullient melodies written for the most part in an unabashedly operatic style. Soprano Susan Dunn and tenor Wade Henderson join with other soloists, with two pianos and a harmonium (reed organ) in this rarely-heard work. Tickets are available at the Duke Box Office: $15 general admission, students free.

QUESTIONS PEOPLE OFTEN ASK - WHY DO WE CONFESS OUR SINS?

Sin is not simply something that makes people unhappy or causes pain: it is life based on a false story, one that leads to worshipping something other than the triune God. However, the Christian story does not begin with sin but with God's decision to be in relationship with humanity and all creation. Thus when there is a breakdown of that relationship, by what has been done, or what has been left undone, it is a tragedy in which the congregation has participated. Repentance means naming and stripping away the things that distance the disciple from the gospel. From personal repentance, the congregation moves into corporate confession. It is not just individual sin that separates each person from God: sin infects the people of God as a whole. In confessing sin, we recognize that the people of this congregation have joined, each and every week, in the catastrophe of discarding God's everlasting invitation to worship and friendship.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.*
