Service of Worship

Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

July 7, 2013

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

"Naaman is restored to life in the Jordan River," by Caspar Luiken (1672-1708).

Biblical faith is not only a confession of the mind or heart; it is also a faith of hands and feet—an embodied belief to be lived out in the world. In 2 Kings, Naaman's is a story of border-crossings and evangelism. He humbles himself and follows the advice of the prophet Elisha, and in so doing comes to believe in and bear witness to the power of the God of Israel. Paul, in his letter to the Galatians, critiques those who would seek obedience for "show," while encouraging followers of Christ to live as a new creation, sowing and reaping in the Spirit. In Luke's gospel Jesus sends his disciples into the world, using the language of harvest. He gives practical insight about inviting people to participate in the work of God, calling his followers to heal, to announce the nearness of God, to accept the hospitality of strangers, and to move on if their words are not received.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

LAUDA ANIMA

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God's peace.)

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)

Generous God, you give us gifts and make them grow: though our faith is small as a mustard seed, make it grow to your glory as we come to know your word, and help us to live for the flourishing of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In Durham, we give thanks for and lift up the many health ministries that work locally and globally to provide medical care and attention to those in need. The ushers bring a gauze bandage to the altar.

receive communion. Wine is used for communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. If you do not plan to receive communion, you may come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for an emergency fund for disaster and recovery support for communities in our world that are affected by unexpected and sudden disaster (natural or otherwise). Your generosity enables the Chapel to respond quickly with financial support in times of acute crisis.

SUMMER CHOIR—Duke Chapel welcomes singers to its Summer Choir on July 14 and 21. Rehearsals for these Sunday services are at 9:15 a.m. on those Sundays in the chancel. Call 919-684-3898 for more information.

CHORAL EVENSONG—Duke Chapel will host the closing Evensong of the Royal School of Church Music (RSCM) Carolina Course on Sunday, July 14 at 3:00 p.m. The Course's choir, under the musical direction of David Hill and accompanied by organists David Arcus and Stephen Gourley, includes girls (ages 8-18) and adults from across the United States and Canada who spend a week of music training and Christian formation while in residence at Saint Mary's School in Raleigh. The worship service is in the Anglican tradition of Choral Evensong and will include choral music by Smith, Stanford, Ireland, and Howells. The service is free and open to the public.

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

WELCOMING CAROL GREGG—The Congregation is pleased to officially welcome the Rev. Dr. Carol Gregg as senior pastor. They have one son, a junior engineering student at Bucknell University.

LOCAL MISSIONS COLLECTION—The July Local Missions “back pew” collection is for Threshold Clubhouse. Threshold Clubhouse helps adults in Durham with severe mental illness stay out of the hospital, succeed at work, continue their education, and reach personal goals. Please bring your contributions of socks and toiletries (shaving cream, razors, deodorant, bar soap, shampoo and conditioner, toothpaste, toothbrushes, and denture adhesive) to the back pew of the Chapel on July 14 and 21.

DINNER AT URBAN MINISTRIES—Each month the Congregation provides a meal for homeless guests at Urban Ministries of Durham.
