Service of Worship

Twenty-first Sunday after Pentecost

October 13, 2013

Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ~

"Ten Lepers," by David Stewart

Today's Old Testament and Gospel lessons both tell stories about lepers. In 2 Kings, Israel's King Naaman suffers from leprosy but is made clean after he reluctantly follows Elisha's instruction to wash in the Jordan River seven times. In Luke, Jesus encounters ten lepers and heals all of them, but only one—the foreigner—returns to offer thanks to God for having been healed. In the passage from 2 Timothy, Paul reflects on his own suffering and encourages endurance in Christ—the one who is faithful, even when we are faithless.

*At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel.
Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.*

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

ANTHEM

Wondrous Love

American Folk Hymn
arr. Eric Thiman

What wondrous love is this, O my soul, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this,
That caused the Lord of bliss
To bear the dreadful curse for my soul.

When I was sinking down, sinking down, sinking down,
When I was sinking down
Beneath God's righteous frown,
Christ laid aside His crown for my soul.

To God and to the Lamb I will sing, I will sing,
To God and to the Lamb
Who is the great I Am,
While millions join the theme, I will sing, I will sing.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON—2 Timothy 2:5-15 (NT page 200)

O Christ, the Healer

ERHALT UNS HERR

SERMON—Striking a Nerve

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

CALL TO PRAYER

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

(The congregation responds to each petition: "Hear our prayer.")

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

I Will Celebrate

William Mathias
(1934-1992)

I will celebrate your love for ever, O Lord, age after age my words shall proclaim your faithfulness; for I claim that love is built to last forever and your faithfulness founded firmly in the heavens. Yours was the arm, and yours the prowess, mighty and exalted your right hand; righteousness and justice support your throne, love and faithfulness are your attendants.

Lord, you have been our refuge age after age. Before the mountains were born, before the earth or the world came to birth, you were God from all eternity and for ever. You can turn us back into dust by saying, "Back to what you were, you sons and daughters of men!" To you, a thousand years are a single day, a yesterday now over, an hour of the night. You brush us away like waking dreams, they are like grass sprouting and flowering in the morning, withered and dry before dusk. Teach us to count how few days we have and so gain wisdom of heart.

Happy the people who learn to acclaim you! O Lord, they will live in the light of your favour; they will rejoice in your name all day and exult in your righteousness. You are their glory and their strength, you, by your kindness, raise our fortunes, since both our shield and our king belong to you, O Lord most high!
