

Duke UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

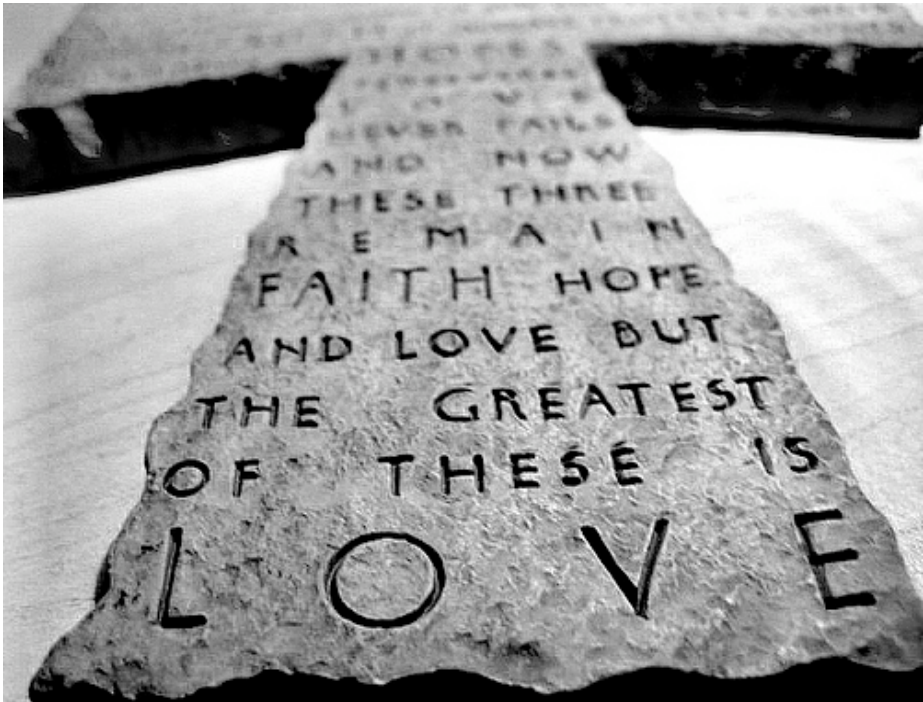

Service of Worship

Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany

February 3, 2013

Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ~

"Love is Patient," Ashley Rose, 2008.

The passage from Paul's first letter to the church in Corinth is one of the most well-known passages in all of Christian scripture for its reflection on love. In writing to the Corinthians, Paul seeks to rebuke the spiritual pride of the community. The love he advocates is not a disembodied love, but a love lived out within the community and profoundly connected to the love we encounter in the cross of Christ. In Luke Jesus tells his followers that "no prophet is accepted in the prophet's hometown," a reminder that sometimes the voice of love may be heard and rejected.

*At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel.
Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.*

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

MISSION ANNOUNCEMENT

OFFERTORY

Blessed Be the God and Father

Samuel Sebastian Wesley
(1810-1876)

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed at the last time.

But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation. Pass the time of your sojourning here in fear.

Love one another with a pure heart fervently. See that ye love one another. Love one another with a pure heart fervently:

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God.

For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away. But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.

—1 Peter 1:3-5, 15, 17, 22b, 23a, 24-25

THANKSGIVING

Today we offer thanks for the Department of Theater Studies. We celebrate the ways in which the art of theater enlivens our imaginations and cultivates a spirit of playfulness in our lives. The ushers bring forward a book on improvisation to the altar.

In Durham we remember those who strive to tell truthful local histories. Ushers bring forward the book Durham County: A History of Durham County.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers for the worship service today are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach Family Trust.

TODAY'S OFFERING—The February Mission of the Month is YO: Durham (Year of Opportunity: Durham) which works with at-risk Durham teens. Founded by Durham Congregations In Action, YO: Durham is currently working with its sixth class. Students attend an intensive Summer Career Academy (SCA), work with mentors throughout the year, work at paid after-school internships, and participate in service learning projects. The SCA includes classes in career planning, dress for success, manners, dining etiquette, anger management, public speaking, personal finance, and civics. Community leaders and business people speak at the SCA and offer advice on career opportunities. Field trips include college visits and a team-building ropes course. Graduates of the program have gone on to pursue various jobs, university careers, and military service.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES—Duke Chapel will have two services (8:00 a.m. and 5:15 p.m.) on Ash Wednesday, February 13. Andrew Tucker, campus minister for the Duke Lutherans, will offer a homily at both services, and there will be an opportunity to receive the imposition of ashes. The 5:15 p.m. service will include the Duke Vespers Ensemble. Ash Wednesday marks the first day of the season of Lent, which encompasses the 40 days prior to Easter Sunday. It is traditionally a season of repentance and fasting. The six Sundays in Lent are considered feast days and not counted as days of penance.

THIS WEEK AT DUKE CHAPEL

MORNING PRAYER - Monday at 9:00 a.m. in the Memorial Chapel
COMMUNION AND HEALING - Tuesday at 5:15 p.m. in the Memorial Chapel
CHORAL VESPERS - Thursday at 5:15 p.m. in the Chancel

THE CONGREGATION AT DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

919-684-3917 • www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST—Next Sunday, February 9, join the Congregation in a pancake breakfast in the Chapel kitchen at 9:45 a.m. This will also be a chance to visit with the Congregation candidate for Senior Pastor, the Rev. Dr. Carol Gregg.

SENIOR PASTOR SEARCH UPDATE—Please join the Search Committee after church today in the Chapel basement to learn about the search process, hear about the Rev. Dr. Carol Gregg, and ask any questions you have. Light refreshments will be provided. Remember to sign up for the Winter Retreat, which is on Saturday, February 9. Dr. Gregg has planned and will be leading the retreat in conjunction with other Congregation staff. This day-long event will allow you to know our candidate more intimately and to benefit from her gifts of Christian ministry and education. Finally, mark your calendars for the Pastor Affirmation Vote on Sunday, February 24, which will be held in Goodson Chapel in the Divinity School immediately after Sunday morning worship.

LOCAL MISSIONS COLLECTION—Two of the organizations supported by the Congregation have particular needs for transportation help. Since Meals on Wheels volunteers use their own vehicles, gift cards for gas would help greatly to retain drivers who may drive multiple routes. Open Tables Ministry, an outreach to the homeless community in Durham, also identified the purchase of gas as a major cost of maintaining their ministry. Service station gift cards would be a blessing to their work. To support these ministries please put gift cards for gas or a check to the Congregation with “Local Missions—Gas Card” in the memo line in the collection plate on February 10 or 17.

LENTEN BOOK STUDY—Congregation members Connie Riddle and Terry Yuschok will lead a Lenten book study on Wednesdays, February 20, 27, and March 5. The group will read Barbara Brown Taylor’s book An Altar in the World. This book describes meaningful ways to discover the sacred in daily life. The first session will cover the first four chapters. To sign up contact Terry 919-604-0427 or email yuschok@gmail.com.
