April 22, 2012

This weekend Duke has been celebrating its alumni/ae. The Chapel welcomes back many today who have cherished and shaped the history of worship and ministry in this place. Today is also Earth Day, and Dean Wells will reflect on themes of creation in light of Christ's resurrection. In addition, we will be commissioning PathWays Chapel summer interns who will live in community and work in various Durham nonprofits over the summer months.

*The congregation is asked to remain silent

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers for the worship service today are given to the glory of God in honor of Duke Alumni/ae by the Duke Alumni Association.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for the Chapel Development Fund, which is the primary source of contributed funds for building care and preservation. The Chapel fulfills James B. Duke's desire that the building exert a profound influence on the lives of the young women and men who attend the university.

CHAPEL CHOIR—Today is the last Sunday for the Chapel Choir until the fall semester. We offer particular thanks to those choir members who are singing with the choir for the last time. On the final Sunday of the academic year, the choir does not encircle the congregation for "God Be In My Head," but rather gathers in the narthex and encircles those singers who are leaving. If you are a student who is interested in joining the Chapel Choir next semester, please call 684-3898.

NEWS FROM ALLAN FRIEDMAN—Allan Friedman, Associate Conductor of the Chapel Choir, recently announced that this will be his last year at the Chapel. He will continue to live in the area and will be pursuing a variety of musical activities. He will be greatly missed, and we wish him well in all that he undertakes. Allan has enriched our community in many ways, both in his work with the Chapel Choir and in his conducting of the Vespers Ensemble and the Divinity School Choir. In honor of his eight years here, Allan will conduct the introit with the Chapel Choir today.

MAY 6 GOODBYE TO DEAN WELLS—May 6, 2012, will be Dean Sam Wells' final Sunday at Duke Chapel before leaving to become Vicar at St. Martin-in-the-Fields in London. The 11:00 a.m. worship service will include a celebration of his contribution to the life and ministry of the Chapel, Duke, and Durham. A free lunch on the Chapel quad will follow the service, with an entertaining afternoon program back in the Chapel from 1:15-2:30 p.m.

SERMONS AVAILABLE—Copies of today's sermon are available in the communication stands at either side of the narthex, just inside the front doors of the Chapel. A downloadable PDF, podcast, and webcast of sermons each week are available on our website, www.chapel.duke.edu.

QUESTIONS PEOPLE OFTEN ASK -

WHY DO WE PROCESS INTO THE SANCTUARY?

Throughout the Bible there is a tension between God’s people as a settled people, enjoying land, king, and temple and God’s people as a pilgrim nation, experiencing exodus, wilderness, and exile. Jesus comes to a people who are in internal exile under the Romans; he encourages them to leave aside everything and to follow him. Yet, we often forget we are a pilgrim people. And so in every act of worship we have a procession, in order to embody what it means to live the life of faith as a journey. The two most significant forms of companionship are to share a meal and to share a journey. Worship begins with one and ends with the other. Just as the Road to Emmaus was, in Luke, the first encounter with the risen Christ, so today breaking bread together helps us identify the God we meet on the journey.
