"Christ in the house of Mary and Martha," by Johannes Vermeer (c. 1654).

Sometimes the distance between God's life and the life here on earth can feel like a large chasm. Yet in his letter to the church in Colossae, Paul emphasizes that Christ is creator and redeemer of all the world, despite human disobedience and frailty. This broken world is redeemed by the cross of Christ, in whom "all things hold together." Luke's gospel tells the story of Martha, who becomes irritated with her sister Mary for spending time with Jesus instead of helping around the house. Jesus responds that Mary has chosen the better part by sitting at his feet.

*The congregation is asked to remain silent
during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.*

OFFERTORY

"Sommerpsalm" (Psalm of Summer)

Waldemar Åhlén
(1894-1982)

The earth adorned in verdant robe
Sends praises upward surging,
While soft winds breathe on fragrant flowers
From winter now emerging.
The sunshine bright gives warmth and light
To budding blossoms tender,
Proclaiming summer splendor.

From out the wood, the birds now sing
And each its song now raises,
To join with all the universe
In voicing thankful praises.
With hope and joy their songs employ
A rapturous exultation
In praise of God's creation.

O God, amid these joys of life,
Creation's glory beaming,
Grant us the grace to keep your word
And live in love redeeming.
All flesh is grass, the flowers fade,
And time is fleeting ever;
God's word remains forever.

If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. If you do not plan to receive communion, you may come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.*

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

MUSIC DURING DISTRIBUTION

HYMN 612 (sung by all)

Deck Thyself, My Soul, with Gladness

SCHMÜCKE DICH

COMMUNION ANTHEM

How Marvelous God's Greatness

Traditional Swedish Tune

DEN BLOMSTERTID NU KOMMER

How marvelous God's greatness, how glorious his might!
To this the world bears witness in wonders day and night.
In form of flower and snowflake, in morn's resplendent birth,
In afterglow at even, in sky and sea and earth.

Each tiny floweret whispers the great life giver's name;
The mighty mountain masses his majesty proclaim;
The hollow vales are hymning God's shelter for his own;
The snowcapped peaks are pointing to God's almighty throne

The ocean's vast abysses in one grand psalm record
The deep mysterious counsels and mercies of the Lord;
The icy waves of winter are thundering on the strand;
And grief's chill stream is guided by God's all-gracious hand.

The starry hosts are singing through all the light-strewn sky
Of God's majestic temple and palace courts on high;
When in these outer chambers such glory gilds that night,
Oh, what transcendent brightness is God's eternal light!

—translation by Charles Venn Pilcher (1879-1961)

QUESTIONS PEOPLE OFTEN ASK - WHY DO WE PROCESSION INTO THE SANCTUARY?

Throughout the Bible there is a tension between God's people as a settled people, enjoying land, king, and temple, and God's people as a pilgrim nation, experiencing exodus, wilderness, and exile. Jesus comes to a people who are in internal exile under the Romans; he encourages them to lay aside everything and to follow him. Yet we often forget we are a pilgrim people. And so in every act of worship we have a procession, in order to embody what it means to live the life of faith as a journey. Two significant forms of companionship are to share a meal and to share a journey. Worship begins with one and ends with the other. Just as the Road to Emmaus was, in Luke, the first encounter with the risen Christ, so today breaking bread together helps us identify the God we meet on the journey.

IHN partners with over 30 local congregations to provide overnight accommodations, meals, and transportation for guests on a rotating basis. The Congregation is looking for volunteers to help the week of July 28 to August 4 as it partners with the members of Antioch Baptist Church in Durham to host families. If you are available to prepare all or part of an evening meal and/or be overnight hosts for the families (staying overnight at Antioch Baptist), or want to learn other ways you can help, please contact Marilyn Christian at mchristian2@nc.rr.com, or call 919-361-1974.
