Service of Worship

Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Orientation Sunday

August 25, 2013

Eleven o'clock in the morning

≈ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ≈

The last week has been a special one in the life of the University, as new students and faculty have made their way to campus and have been oriented to the Duke community. Orientation Sunday is filled with new faces, new energy, and warm welcome. We invite you to make the Chapel an integral part of your Duke experience. We hope that in the midst of exciting and sometimes difficult life transitions, the Chapel will be a place where you come to encounter Christ—and to discover a life shaped by joy, friendship, purpose, and faithfulness.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

Ralph Vaughan Williams
(1872-1958)

O how amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of Hosts! My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God. Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of Hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be always praising thee. The glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us: prosper thou the work of our hands upon us. —Psalm 84:1-4; Psalm 90:17

O God, our help in ages past,
Our how for years to come,

It is in this spirit of new beginnings that we offer this anthem today.

QUESTIONS PEOPLE OFTEN ASK

WHY DO WE READ THE GOSPEL FROM THE CENTER AISLE?

The gospel has a special status because in it are recorded the very words of Jesus himself. Placing its reading at the center of our worship reflects this authority—it embodies our conviction that the gospel stands at the very center of the Chapel's faith and life. The congregation turns to face the gospel reader, as an embodiment of the repentance Christ asks of us.

WHAT IS THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE WORD "CATHOLIC" IN THE CREED?

The Apostles' Creed was written in the third or fourth century, long before the sixteenth-century split between Protestants and Catholics. When we say we believe in the "the holy catholic church," the term "catholic" (with a small "c") means "universal." We at Duke Chapel claim—and pray—to be one body with all Christians, everywhere. When "Catholic" is used with a big "C," it refers more narrowly to the Roman Catholic Church, which uses the term "Catholic" in its name because it sees itself as universal. Protestant and Orthodox Christians see the Roman Catholics as but one part, with themselves, of the wider catholic church.

HOW OFTEN DOES THE CHAPEL CELEBRATE COMMUNION?

The opportunity to break bread together is a significant part of the life of Duke Chapel. Communion is celebrated each Sunday morning, with two Sundays a month as part of the main 11:00 a.m. worship service, and alternating Sundays in the Memorial Chapel directly after the worship service concludes. Additionally, during the academic year, there is an opportunity to receive Communion and prayers for healing in the Memorial Chapel on Tuesday evenings at 5:15 p.m. .
