Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

Duke Family Weekend

October 26, 2014

Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Bridging Faith and Learning ~

In today's lesson from Deuteronomy, Moses, who led the Israelites for forty years in the wilderness, dies before entering the promised land. In his letter to the people of Thessalonica, Paul encourages them to persevere in the face of suffering, knowing that God has entrusted them to share the gospel, and that their mission is grounded in Christ. In the gospel lesson from Matthew, Jesus emphasizes that the greatest commandments are, first, to love God, and, second, to love your neighbor as yourself. In this proclamation, Jesus makes clear that such love is connected—you cannot properly love God without loving your neighbor. On this Sunday, the Chapel is pleased to welcome all parents and other family members who are worshipping with us today as part of Duke's Family Weekend.

*The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.
The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.*

INTROIT

Pilgrims' Hymn	Stephen Paulus (1949–2014)
----------------	-------------------------------

Even before we call on your name to ask you, O God,
When we seek for the words to glorify you, you hear our prayer;
Unceasing love, O unceasing love, surpassing all we know.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Even with darkness sealing us in, we breathe your name,
And through all the days that follow so fast, we trust in you;
Endless your grace, O endless your grace, beyond all mortal dream.
Both now and for ever, and unto ages and ages, amen.

—Michael Dennis Browne

Thou shalt love the Lord, thou shalt love thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy mind, and with all thy soul. This is the first and great commandment, and the second is like it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thy self. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

CALL TO PRAYER

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

(The congregation responds to each petition: "Hear our prayer.")

This morning we give thanks for the Duke School of Nursing. We celebrate its commitment to excellence in nursing sciences, clinical care and research, and its desire to touch lives and offer transforming care to those suffering from illness and disease.

In Durham, we remember the churches and faith communities who join together in a shared desire to seek the peace and well-being of the city.

OFFERTORY

As Truly as God Is Our Father

William Mathias
(1934–1992)

As truly as God is our Father, so just as truly is he our Mother.

In our Father, God Almighty, we have our being;

In our merciful Mother we are remade and restored.

Our fragmented lives are knit together.

And by giving and yielding ourselves, through grace,

To the Holy Spirit we are made whole.

It is I, the strength and goodness of Fatherhood.

It is I, the wisdom of Motherhood.

It is I, the light and grace of holy love.

It is I, the Trinity.

I am the sovereign goodness in all things.

It is I who teach you to love.

It is I who teach you to desire.

It is I who am the reward of all true desiring.

All shall be well, and all manner of thing shall be well. Amen.

—Julian of Norwich (1342–1416)

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The Flowers for today's worship are given to the glory of God and in honor of visiting family members by the Assistant Vice President of Student Affairs and the Dean of Students Office, in conjunction with the Duke Parents Program.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support the Chapel's PathWays program, which offers students opportunities to discern God's call for their lives through study, counsel, service, and community.

FALL FELLOWSHIP TODAY—Today after church the Chapel will be offering an autumn fellowship event on the Chapel lawn. Please plan to stay after the service for spiced cider, cookies, and fellowship. All are welcome.

STEPHEN PAULUS INTROIT—The introit is being sung today in memory of American composer Stephen Paulus, who passed away last Sunday in Minnesota. Mr. Paulus was a prolific composer who wrote over 150 choral works and was a strong supporter of and mentor to young composers. His compositions, several of which the Chapel Choir has sung in worship, show a particular sensitivity to vocal color and the expressive meaning of text.

SERVICE OF PRAYER FOR PEACE IN HOMES AND RELATIONSHIPS—Today at 5:30 p.m. there will be a service of prayer for peace in homes and relationships. This service will consist of prayers of lament and remembrance for those who have been survivors and victims of domestic and relationship violence. Please join the communities of Duke and Durham for this time of prayer at Duke Chapel.

BREAKING OUT EXHIBIT IN THE CHAPEL—This month Duke Chapel welcomes Breaking Out. Breaking Out is a tribute to survivors of sexual assault who volunteered to be photographed along with quotations that provide a personal narrative to their experience with sexual violence. The exhibit reflects the Chapel's commitment to encouraging healing through artistic expression and cultivating communities of support for those isolated by shame. It will be displayed in Duke Chapel for public viewing through October 30 during Domestic Violence and Prevention Awareness Month. The event is co-sponsored by the Duke Women's Center and the Presbyterian Campus Ministry.

ALL HALLOWS' EVE SERVICE OF WORSHIP

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 10:30 P.M.

Join the Chapel community and the Duke Choral Vespers Ensemble for a candlelight service of worship and remembrance. This unique service reflects on the role of saints in the faith and in our own lives through music, scripture, and readings of particular saints from the Christian tradition. The sacrament of Holy Communion will be celebrated.
