Service of Worship

First Sunday after Christmas

December 30, 2012

Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ~

"The Twelve-Year Old Jesus in the Temple," by Eric de Saussure, 1968.

The first Sunday after Christmas often celebrates the feast of the Holy Family, and in the scripture lessons today we come to know that biblical families (like our own) knew challenge and difficulty. In First Samuel, the priest Eli is anguished over his sons and the prophecy of the undoing of his household because of their wickedness and disregard for the Lord. In the gospel lesson from Luke, a precocious Jesus escapes from his parents after the Festival of Passover. He is eventually found in the Temple, where he has been astonishing all the teachers with his questions and understanding.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.
