Service of Worship

Fifth Sunday after Epiphany
February 8, 2015
Eleven o'clock in the morning

≈ Bridging Faith and Learning ≈

The prophet Isaiah implores, “Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth.” He offers words of comfort and hope to a people who are weary in exile, offering the promise that those “who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.” In Mark’s gospel, Jesus also represents hope and the chance for healing for all whose lives were twisted by illness, grief, and encounters with evil.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

CHORAL INTROIT

O For a Heart to Praise My God

David Arcus
(b. 1959)

O for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free,
A heart that always feels thy blood
So freely spilt for me.

A humble, lowly, contrite heart,
Believing true and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within.

Thy nature, gracious Lord impart,
Come quickly from above;
Write thy new name upon my heart
Thy new, best name of Love.

—Charles Wesley

ANTHEM

Psalm 121

Robert Parkins
(b. 1948)

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills; from whence cometh my help?
My help cometh even from the Lord, who hath made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; and he that keepeth thee will not sleep. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord himself is thy keeper; the Lord is thy defense upon thy right hand; so that the sun shall not smite thee by day, neither the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil; yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even forever more.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

O Lord, Hear My Prayer

David Arcus
(b. 1959)

O Lord, hear my prayer, and let my cry come to you. —Psalm 102:1

I am poured out like water; all my bones are out of joint; my heart within my breast is melting wax. My mouth is dried up like potsherd; my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; and you have laid me in the dust of the grave. —Psalm 22:14–15

The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. Let the beloved of the Lord rest secure in him, for he shields them all day long, and they whom the Lord loves rest between his shoulders. —Deuteronomy 33:12 and 27, adapted

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? —Psalm 27:1

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for you are with me, your rod and your staff they comfort me. —Psalm 23:14

Through the length of all my days, your goodness will never fail; Good Shepherd, may I always sing your praise within your house.

—Henry Williams Baker, adapted

Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ on my right, Christ on my left, Christ in breadth, Christ length, Christ height, Christ in the heart of every person who thinks of me, Christ in the mouth of every person who speaks of me, Christ in every eye that sees me, ear that hears me. I arise today through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity, through belief in the Threeness, through confession of the Oneness of the Creator of creation. Salvation is of the Lord! Salvation is of Christ! May thy salvation, O Lord, be ever with us. Amen. —St. Patrick's Breastplate, adapted

EACH WEEK AT DUKE CHAPEL

COMMUNION AND HEALING - Tuesday at 5:15 p.m. in the Memorial Chapel

MID-WEEK PRAYER - Wednesday at noon in the Memorial Chapel

CHORAL VESPERS - Thursday at 5:15 p.m. in the Chancel (begins 9/5)

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—Flowers for today's worship are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach Family Trust.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for the Chapel Development Fund. The Chapel's current focus is to upgrade the Chapel cameras and video capabilities to digital and high definition in order to better serve the thousands of worshippers locally, in Duke Hospital, and around the globe who tune in weekly.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM—The offertory anthem, which will receive its premiere today, was composed by former Chapel Organist Dr. David Arcus, who was commissioned to write it. He says about the background of the piece: "I wrote 'O Lord, Hear my Prayer' in response to a request from my dear friends Jim and Kay Kelly for a choral piece that marked a passage through a difficult illness. We discussed creating an anthem that reflected on the journey from the pain and uncertainty of sickness through the promise of hope to the triumph of restored health, and they offered specific texts that were key to their experience. As this journey of recovery was a day-by-day process without certainty of the outcome, I approached writing the work in a similar fashion, not outlining the structure and use of themes ahead of time but rather letting the work unfold as the sense of the texts emerged over time. Dissonant passages at the beginning of the work announce pain and struggles with the onset of illness, while the message of hope and assurance of God's presence arrives with soothing, consonant harmonies after a brief silence."

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES—Duke Chapel will have two services (8:00 a.m. and 5:15 p.m.) on Ash Wednesday, February 18. Pastor Gus Kim, who leads Duke's Agape Campus ministry, will offer a homily at both services, and there will be an opportunity to receive the imposition of ashes. The 5:15 p.m. service will include the Duke Vespers Ensemble. Ash Wednesday marks the first day of the season of Lent, which encompasses the 40 days prior to Easter Sunday. It is traditionally a season of repentance and fasting. The six Sundays in Lent are considered feast days and not counted as days of penance.
