Fourth Sunday of Easter
April 26, 2015
Eleven o'clock in the morning

Bridging Faith and Learning

Icon of the Good Shepherd. Artist Unknown

Every year on the fourth Sunday of Easter, the lectionary passages for the day include a gospel account that emphasizes Jesus as the good shepherd. The fourth Sunday in Eastertide is therefore often designated as "Good Shepherd Sunday." In both the Old and New Testaments, God is frequently identified as a faithful shepherd to his people. This Sunday is a fitting time to reflect on Jesus as one who knows and loves his flock with persistence and devotion.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.
The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

Anthem

Psalm 23 — C. Hylton Stewart (1884–1932)

The Lord is my shepherd;
therefore can I lack nothing.
He shall feed me in a green pasture,
and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.
He shall convert my soul,
and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness,
for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I shall fear no evil; for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff comfort me.
Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me;
thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.
But thy loving-kindness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
Glory be to the Father,
and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost:
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Second Lesson—1 John 3:16–24 (NT page 226)

Response

*The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Call to Prayer
Minister: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Minister: Let us pray.

Today's Mission of the Month Offering—The Religious Coalition for a Nonviolent Durham (RCND) is an inter-faith, multi-racial organization that exists to address the needs that violence creates and alleviate the isolation of grief and punishment. RCND achieves this through Vigils, Friday Fellowship, and Healing Circle ministries for families of homicide victims; the Reconciliation and Reentry Ministry with individuals recently released from prison (including a Faith Team from Duke Chapel) and monthly Community Luncheon Roundtables. All activities are free and open to everyone. Over 25% of our budget is dedicated to emergency needs of victims, survivors, and former offenders.
