Service of Worship

Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost
October 18, 2015, Page Auditorium
Eleven o'clock in the morning

≈ Bridging Faith and Learning ≈

'Synaxis of the Twelve Apostles Icon' via Creative Commons.

The Scripture readings for today teach us of God's majesty and humility. The Lord thunders to Job out of the whirlwind, and speaks of God's sovereignty over creation and events, even when life does not make sense to us. In the letter to the Hebrews, Jesus' perfect humility is described. Through his faithful obedience and love, Jesus left his glory in heaven to sacrifice himself and pay the ransom price for our sins. In Mark, Jesus rebukes the presumption of James and John, and the squabbling of the other disciples. He reminds them and us that while earthly power lords it over others, the way of God's Kingdom is giving our lives in humble service. Like the disciples, we think "we are able," but the way of the Cross teaches that it is only God who is able.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in Page Auditorium by the seats at the front left of the stage, in front of the organ. Immediately following Communion, a service of prayer for healing will be held in the same location. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

During the prelude the congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the Box Office on the second floor of Page.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways; to the glory of your name. Amen.

ANTHEM

How Deep the Father's Love for Us

Stuart Townend
(b. 1963)

How deep the Father's love for us,
How vast beyond all measure,
That He should give His only Son
To make a wretch His treasure.
How great the pain of searing loss -
The Father turns His face away,
As wounds which mar the Chosen One
Bring many sons to glory.

Behold the man upon a cross,
My sin upon His shoulders;
Ashamed, I hear my mocking voice
Call out among the scoffers.
It was my sin that held Him there
Until it was accomplished;
His dying breath has brought me life -
I know that it is finished.

I will not boast in anything,
No gifts, no power, no wisdom;
But I will boast in Jesus Christ,
His death and resurrection.
Why should I gain from His reward?
I cannot give an answer;
But this I know with all my heart -
His wounds have paid my ransom.

—arr. Matthew Boyle, Trinity '11

In wisdom you have made them all, the earth is full of your creation, for you made them all. May the glory of the Lord endure forever; may the Lord rejoice in all God's works. TODAY'S FLOWERS—Flowers for today's worship service are given to the glory of God in memory of Barbara Ann Freeman Erlenbach, WC '56, by her family and grandchildren.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support the Mission of the Month. Genesis Home is in the process of merging with Durham Interfaith Hospitality Network to become "Families Moving Forward." Please visit www.genesishome.org to learn more about the merger, its benefits and how you can help the families and children that we serve. Your compassion can change lives.

FELLOWSHIP—All are warmly invited to stay for a time of fellowship after the service on the Chapel Quad, with food provided by the Congregation at Duke Chapel, and music by Something Borrowed, Something Blue.

GUEST CHOIR—Today we welcome Something Borrowed, Something Blue to help lead us in worship. Originally founded in 1969, they are Duke University's co-ed Christian a cappella group who perform a wide variety of songs to communicate the love of Christ.

Duke University Chapel

Duke Chapel is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. It is also a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it further acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service, especially during this year of the Chapel's restoration during which we will gather to worship God in different places across Duke's campuses.
