Service of Worship

Baptism of Our Lord
January 10, 2016, Page Auditorium
Eleven o'clock in the morning

≈ Bridging Faith and Learning ≈

"Christ's Baptism by John," by Woonbo Kim Ki-chang, ca. 1954.

Today we see and celebrate the humble obedience of Jesus, who was baptized by John, despite being Lord of all, and without sin. As he rises out of the River Jordan the Spirit descends on Jesus, and his Father declares from heaven delight in the Son of God, the beloved. Centuries before, the prophet Isaiah declares the faithfulness of God, who promises to walk through fire and water alongside the Lord's beloved people. In the Acts of the Apostles, we see Jesus' invitation of salvation offered to all who believe in him, and the giving of baptism by water and the Holy Spirit.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in Page Auditorium by the seats at the front left of the stage, in front of the organ. Immediately following Communion, a service of prayer for healing will be held in the same location. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

During the prelude the congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the Box Office on the second floor of Page.

Duke University Chapel

Duke Chapel is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. It is also a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it further acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service, especially during this year of the Chapel's restoration during which we will gather to worship God in different places across Duke's campuses.
