Service of Worship

Fifth Sunday of Lent
March 13, 2016, Page Auditorium
Eleven o'clock in the morning

≈ Bridging Faith and Learning ≈

“Ad pectus (To the Breast),” by Robyn Sand Anderson.

In today's Gospel passage, Jesus allows his friend Mary to honor him with an intimate offering of costly perfume. This generous act exposes the legalistic heart of Judas, and Paul reminds us that adherence to religious law is nothing compared to the surpassing value of knowing Christ. The fifth piece in our Lenten “Membra Jesu nostri” series (pictured above) is entitled “To the Breast.” It reminds us that Jesus was nurtured as a vulnerable infant, and it points to the love of God that is as tender as a mother's embrace and as powerful as Isaiah's description of the parting of the Red Sea.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in Page Auditorium by the seats at the front left of the stage, in front of the organ. Immediately following Communion, a service of prayer for healing will be held in the same location. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

During the prelude the congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the Box Office on the second floor of Page.

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 388 (Please see hymns at back of bulletin.)

O Come and Dwell in Me

ST. MICHAEL

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE

God of mercy, you sent Jesus Christ to seek and save the lost. We confess that we have strayed from you and turned aside from your way. We are misled by pride, for we see ourselves pure when we are stained, and great when we are small. We have failed in love, neglected justice, and ignored your truth. Have mercy, O God, and forgive our sin. Return us to paths of righteousness through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God's peace.)

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. It is also a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it further acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service, especially during this year of the Chapel's restoration during which we will gather to worship God in different places across Duke's campuses.
