Service of Worship

Fourth Sunday of Easter
May 7, 2017
Eleven o'clock in the morning

✻ Bridging Faith and Learning ✻

Icon of Christ the Good Shepherd

In today's Gospel passage, Jesus the Good Shepherd offers abundant life and eternal salvation to all those who believe in him. Those who love Jesus are his sheep who know his voice. Jesus is the living fulfillment of David's Divine Shepherd in Psalm 23—the Lord who guards and protects us. In Acts, the early church celebrates the resurrection life of Jesus by living and worshipping together and by holding everything in common with one another.

The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation. The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

LEARNING THE LITURGY OF THE CHAPEL

We are people gathered by Christ's love, who scatter to be witnesses to that love in the world. Gathering and scattering; inhaling life to exhale life in the world; inspired by the Spirit to expire for Christ. Through the worship liturgy, we are reminded of how God works in creation and new creation, and we learn to see Jesus' presence anew. Being enlightened by the light of the world in this way, we are sent out to continue worshiping, to see God's presence and activity in the world, and to testify to God's grace. To this end, the minister proclaims a good word of blessing and sending, and the people, led by the cross, depart singing a song of worship and praise.

All are welcome including friends, family, and guests.

RECEPTION FOR NANCY FEREE-CLARK—All are welcome to attend a reception for Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark, pastor of the Congregation from 1992-2010, on Tuesday, May 23, from 7:30–9:00 p.m., location TBD. Nancy will be briefly visiting the Durham area.

GROUNDING BOOK GROUPS—Book groups to read and discuss Grounded: Finding God in the World—A Spiritual Revolution by Diana Butler Bass will begin May 24 and May 25.
