Trinity Sunday

June 11, 2017

Eleven o'clock in the morning

✻ Bridging Faith and Learning ✻

Icon of the Holy Trinity, by Andrei Rublev, c. 1410

Trinity Sunday begins the liturgical season of ordinary time that follows Pentecost. Today we celebrate the revelation of God as the Holy Trinity—God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. As Christians, we worship the triune Godhead—three divine Persons, united as one God in substance, power, and eternity. This morning's Scripture readings tell of the Lord's mighty acts of creation, calling out life by God's word of power. Jesus, the living Word and Son of God, calls the Church to make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation. The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.
