Service of Worship

Eighth Sunday after Pentecost

July 30, 2017

Eleven o'clock in the morning

✻ Bridging Faith and Learning ✻

"The Hidden Treasure," by the Jesus MAFA Community, Cameroon

In this morning's New Testament reading, the apostle Paul declares that all things work together for good for those who love God. Those who remain in Jesus are made more than conquerors through him who loved us. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus teaches that the Kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Living into the goodness of God's Kingdom is a gift available to all those who place their faith in Christ.

The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation. The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

TODAY'S GUEST PREACHER—This morning's Howard C. Wilkinson Guest Preacher is the Rev. Dr. Fredrick A. Davis. Pastor Davis was born in Deland, Florida, and graduated from Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, North Carolina, earning a bachelor of arts degree (magna cum laude) in philosophy and religion. He continued his studies in the areas of philosophy and theology at the Interdenominational Theological Center at Morehouse School of Religion in Atlanta, Georgia, from which he has both a masters of divinity degree and an honorary doctorate of divinity. Pastor Davis has been in pastoral service at First Calvary Baptist Church for twenty-six years, having been the Undershepherd of that body of faith since June 1991. In 1993, in order to address challenges facing the West End Community, he formed a nonprofit organization, The West End Community Foundation, Inc. He has served as the organization's chairman for the past twenty-four years. Additionally, he has served two terms as a member of the Durham Public School Board. Pastor Davis is married to Judith Hayes Davis and they have three sons, Fredrick Amos II, Jordan Emmanuel, and John Daniel; one daughter-in-law, Josephine; and two grandsons, Fredrick III and Lincoln. He is an avid golfer and loves music!

TODAY'S GUEST CHOIR—The Mass Choir of First Calvary Baptist Church seeks to minister God's Word through song. Under the direction of Minister Michael A. The choir sings in four-part harmony. Singing from a catalog that includes traditional hymns, anthems, special choral arrangements, and more, the choir travels with the pastor on ministry engagements to churches in the local area and within the state of North Carolina. They also minister in song every fifth Sunday at First Calvary and for all special worship services at the Church. In 2009, the Mass Choir produced a music CD. The Music Ministry of First Calvary hosts a bi-annual music workshop in March.
