A new semester of classes has begun at Duke, and we extend God's welcome to you. In this morning's Gospel reading, Jesus asks us what we would give in return for our life, teaching that "those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it." Once we have found the true value of life in Christ, the apostle Paul teaches the marks of a true Christian life, shaped by a cruciform love.

The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation. The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

ANTHEM

Let All the World in Every Corner Sing

William Mathias
(1934–1992)

O come, let us sing to the Lord:
Let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.
Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving:
And show ourselves glad in him with psalms.
For the Lord is a great God:
And a great King above all gods.
In his hand are all the corners of the earth:
And the strength of the hills is his also.
O come, let us worship and fall down:
And kneel before the Lord our Maker.
For he is the Lord our God:
And we are the people of his pasture,
And the sheep of his hand.
Let us sing unto the Lord.

—Psalm 95: 1–4, 6–7

Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King!
The heavens are not too high,
His praise may thither fly;
The earth is not too low,
His praises there may grow.
Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King!
The church with psalms must shout,
No door can keep them out;
But above all, the heart
Must bear the longest part.
Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King!
Amen.

—George Herbert
