This morning we celebrate World Communion Sunday, giving thanks for the universal Body of Christ. In the sacrament of Holy Communion, we are bonded in spiritual unity with Christians around the world, receiving Jesus, the Bread of Life. In today's Gospel reading, Jesus challenges those who deny that his authority comes from God, and invites us to put our faith into action.

The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement. On this Communion Sunday, families with children are invited to sit up front, so they can better observe The Great Thanksgiving.

The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.
