Today we remember the Baptism of Jesus. The Epiphany season celebrates the revealing of Christ. Traditionally, it marks three events: the visit of the magi, the baptism of Christ, and his first miracle—Jesus’ transforming water into wine at Cana. In response to the baptism of Jesus, we renew our own baptismal covenants with our Lord. We recall three elements of our baptism—the stripping of all that stands between us and God, the washing in the water that cleanses us and drowns our sin, and being clothed in the garments of righteousness, the new vocation of discipleship. Therefore, today is a call to holiness of life and renewed vocation.
The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.
The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

CHORAL INTORIT

Come to the Water
John Foley
(b. 1939)
arr. Howard Helvey

O let all who thirst, let them come to the water. And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord: without money, without price. Why should you pay the price, except for the Lord?

Wash, O God, Our Sons and Daughters

SERMON—Continuing Education

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES’ CREED
I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Call to Prayer
Minister: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Minister: Let us pray.

Prayers of the People
(The congregation responds to each petition: “Hear our prayer.”)

This morning we give thanks for Duke Police Department. We celebrate its commitment to the public safety of our campus through law enforcement and security services.

In Durham, we give thanks for and lift up the many health ministries who work locally and globally to provide medical care and attention to those in need.

Mid-Week Prayer - Wednesday at noon in the Memorial Chapel

Choral Vespers - Thursday at 5:15 p.m. in the Chancel
Chapel Announcements

Today’s Flowers—Flowers for today’s worship are given to the glory of God by the Nan and Taylor Cole Chapel Endowment.

Today’s Mission of the Month Offering—All of today’s cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support the Duke chapter of Habitat for Humanity. Duke Habitat is one of the largest and most active student organizations on campus. Habitat’s mission is derived from key theological concepts: the necessity of putting faith into action, the “economics of Jesus,” and the “theology of the hammer.” Families selected by Habitat work closely with volunteers, investing 240-300 hours of their own labor, or “sweat-equity,” in building their homes. Because partner families and Duke students do nearly 80% of the work on Habitat homes, a Duke Chapter house fosters close connections between the students of Duke University and the people of Durham.

Service of Remembrance for Haiti Earthquake—Monday, January 12, marks the five-year anniversary of the Haiti earthquake. Together with the Duke Haiti Lab, Duke Chapel will be hosting a worship service that Monday at 4:30 p.m. Dean Luke Powery will preach and members of the Chapel Choir will sing. In addition, a remembrance book will be in the Chapel beginning on Friday where people may write words of solace and condolence to the people of Haiti.

Chapel Staff Announcement—Andrew Klumpp, the Chapel’s visitor relations specialist, has returned to his alma mater, Northwestern College in Iowa, for an adjunct teaching opportunity. This semester, we are pleased to have Taylor Knight, Trinity ’14 and former Chapel Scholar, serving as visitor relations specialist until the Chapel nave’s closure in May.

Martin Luther King, Jr., Service of Celebration—Next Sunday at 3:00 p.m., the University is hosting the 2014 Service of Celebration in honor of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., in Duke Chapel. The Rev. Dr. William Barber II, President of the North Carolina chapter of the NAACP, will be the keynote speaker. The service will also include the Duke University Jazz Ambassadors and the Collage Dance Company. All are invited to attend.

Sounds of Justice and Inclusion—The Durham Symphony along with the John Brown “Little” Big Band, Yolanda Rabun, and the 100 Men in Black Choir will present “Sounds of Justice and Inclusion,” a concert honoring the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., on Saturday, January 17, at 8:00 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. Tickets are $10 for adults and free for students. Purchase your tickets at tickets.duke.edu.

Sermons Available—Copies of today’s sermon are available in the communication stands at either side of the narthex, just inside the front doors of the Chapel. A downloadable PDF, podcast, and webcast of sermons each week are available on the Chapel’s website, www.chapel.duke.edu.

Duke Chapel Event Email List—If you would like to receive emails about upcoming events sponsored by Duke Chapel, such as concerts, dialogues, special worship services, and more, please visit www.chapel.duke.edu/contact and sign up via the link in the left-hand box.
The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

Christian Education—All Sunday morning classes meet in the lowest level of Duke Divinity School from 9:45–10:45 a.m. New participants are welcome at any time. Classes include:

- Wee Praise for infants through children age 3 with parents or caregivers in 0014 Westbrook
- Godly Play for 4-year olds through 5th graders in 0050 Langford
- Youth Sunday School for youth in 6th–12th grades in 0013 Westbrook
- Adult Bible Study focused on the theme of worship in 0011 Westbrook
- Adult Forum: Next Sunday, January 18, the Rev. Dr. Fred Westbrook, Associate for Communications and IT for the Congregation will speak on “Thomas Berry and the Story of the Universe” in 0012 Westbrook

Epiphany Lunch Today—To celebrate the season of Epiphany, which began January 6, all are invited to stay for lunch in the Chapel lounge following worship today. Everyone is welcome!

Back Pew Collection—Today and January 18, donations of new or gently-used tents, blankets, tarps, hooded sweatshirts, long underwear, socks, and warm gloves will be collected in the back pew. Donations will be distributed by Open Table Ministries to the homeless who live in various wooded areas of Durham.

Youth Ski Retreat—Youth in grades 6–12 are invited to participate in a ski weekend February 13–16 at Lake Junaluska Conference Center. In addition to skiing, the weekend will include worship and fellowship. Deadline for registration is January 15. Please contact Brad Troxell for detailed information at 919-684-3917 or brad.troxell@duke.edu.

Saturday Service Project—On Saturday, January 24, volunteers are invited to support Open Table Ministries by participating in the Winter Walk at Solite Park, 4870 Fayetteville Rd., Durham. The walk is intended to increase understanding and support of those who live in the woods in Durham. The 2.5 mile walk begins at 1:00 p.m., while music, food trucks, and a bonfire begin at noon. Volunteers are needed to assist with the events, walk, and to sponsor walkers. Please email Brad Troxell at brad.troxell@duke.edu for more information.

Women’s Ministry Lunch—Women are invited to lunch on January 25 at the home of Gretchen Ziegenhals. We will gather at 1:00 p.m. (after church) to enjoy a potluck lunch and fellowship. Please bring a dish and recipe to share. The Women’s Ministry group of the Congregation enjoys 4 Fs: food, fun, fellowship, and “frayer.” Please contact congregation@duke.edu to indicate your plans to attend and for more information.
On Jordan's Banks the Baptist's Cry

1. On Jordan's banks the Baptist's cry announces that the Lord is nigh; awake and hearken, for he brings glad tidings of the King of kings!

2. Then cleansed be ev'ry life from sin;
   way for God within, and let us all our hearts prepare for Christ to come and enter there.

3. We hail you as our Savior, Lord, our refuge and our great reward; without your grace we on us shine and fill the world with love divine.

4. Stretch forth your hand, our health restore, and make us rise and fall no more; oh, let your face up we adore, and Holy Spirit evermore.

5. All praise to you, eternal Son, whose advent has our freedom won, whom with the Father

Words: Charles Coffin (1676-1749)
Tune: Puer Nobis, melody from Trier MS., 15th cent.; adapt. Michael Praetorius, 1571-1621; harm. Hymns Ancient and Modern, Revised
DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL
Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

www.chapel.duke.edu • Box 90974, Durham, NC 27708 • 919-684-2572

FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS
† Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.
† For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today’s docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.
† Hearing assist units and a Braille hymnal are available at the attendant’s desk at the entry way of the Chapel. See the Chapel attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print Bibles or hymnals for the worship service this morning.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN
† Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet, or change infants are also welcome.
† Activity Bags are available at the rear of the Chapel for children 5 or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service. Children’s bulletins are available from the ushers.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you would like to receive the weekly eNews from the Congregation or have any questions, please email congregation@duke.edu or call 919-684-3917.
