Sadao Watanabe, Oikoumene

In John's Gospel, Jesus calls Philip and Nathanael to be his disciples. Nathanael initially doubts Philip's testimony about Jesus but is astonished when Jesus reveals his divine knowledge of Nathanael's character and life. In response, Nathanael exclaims "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!"

Precious Lord, take my hand, guide my feet to that land.
Take my hand, precious Lord, and lead me home.

When my way grows drear, precious Lord, linger near;

Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

Precious Lord, take my hand, lead me on, let me stand;
I am tired, I am weak, I am worn.
Through the storm, through the night, lead me on to the light.
Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

Response

*The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

His 2017 book entitled Tears We Cannot Stop: A Sermon to White America received wide critical acclaim.

BULLETIN COVER ART | In collaboration with Duke Initiatives in Theology and the Arts (DITA), art by Japanese artist Sadao Watanabe will be exhibited in the Chapel January 9–February 21. The exhibition is entitled Beauty Given by Grace: The Biblical Prints of Sadao Watanabe. At age 17, Watanabe (1913-1996) was baptized a Christian, and he quickly combined his new faith with an interest in preserving the traditional Japanese folk art of stencil dying, or katazome. Over time, Watanabe came to be Japan's leading artist to portray biblical scenes. While his work was well-received in his homeland, it was also highly regarded internationally as evidenced by exhibitions at leading institutions such as the British Museum, New York's Museum of Modern Art, the Museum of Fine Arts Boston, the National Museum of Modern Art in Tokyo, and the Vatican Museum. Watanabe's fame notwithstanding, the artist's chief desire was to create art that could be enjoyed by common people and displayed in ordinary settings. With this goal in view, he chose scenes from the Bible as his primary subject matter in order to communicate the truth of Scripture in the Japanese context.
