BRIDGING FAITH & LEARNING

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Second Sunday After Epiphany
Sunday, January 19, 2020, 11:00 a.m.

John the Baptist Announcing the Messiah
Cappella Palatina di Palermo, Italy, c. 12th century

Today the Chapel honors the witness of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., recalling his conviction that “injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.” The service includes a litany remembering the prophetic witness of Rev. Dr. King and asking for grace for all who continue to work toward God’s justice on earth. Even as we remember Rev. Dr. King, we are reminded through the scriptures of others who have cried out in truth about their life situations and about the God who comes to rescue and redeem. Isaiah and Paul both speak of the God who is faithful to give strength and help to accomplish the work to which God calls. In the Gospel Lesson, John the Baptist declares that Jesus is God’s lamb who has come to take away the sins of the whole world.

O Zion, Haste

TIDINGS

*Prayer of Confession and Words of Assurance | The minister offers words of confession in three biddings to which the congregation responds as follows:

Minister: Lord have mercy.

People: Lord have mercy.

Minister: Christ have mercy.

People: Christ have mercy.

Minister: Lord have mercy.

People: Lord have mercy.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*Peace | All exchange signs and words of God's peace.

Proclamation

Prayer for Illumination | In unison:

God of all mercy, your Son proclaimed good news to the poor, release to the captives, and freedom to the oppressed: as your word is proclaimed, anoint us with your Holy Spirit and set all your people free to praise you in Christ our Lord. Amen.

Old Testament Lesson | OT page 638 in the pew Bible

Isaiah 49:1-7

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 40:1-11 | Chanted in alternation between the choir and congregation.

I waited patiently | for the Lord;
he inclined his ear to me and | heard my cry.

He drew me up from the desolate pit, out of the | miry bog,
and set my feet upon a rock, making my | steps secure.

* All rise as able

He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise | to our God.

Many will see and fear, and put their trust | in the Lord.

Happy are those who make the | Lord their trust,
who do not turn to the proud or to those who | follow lies.

O Lord my God, you have multiplied your wondrous deeds and your thoughts toward us; none can com - | pare with you.

Were I to proclaim and tell of them, they would be more than | can be counted.

Sacrifice and offering you do not desire, but you have given me an | open ear.
Burnt offering and sin offering you have | not required.

Then I said, "Here I am; in the scroll of the book it is writ - | ten of me:
'I delight to do your will, O my God; your law is with - | in my heart.'"

I have told the glad news of deliverance in the great | congregation;
see, I have not restrained my lips, as you | know, O Lord.

I have not hidden your saving help within my heart,

I have spoken of your faithfulness and | your salvation;

I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness from the great | congregation.

O Lord, do not withhold your mer - | cy from me;

let your steadfast love and faithfulness keep me | safe forever.

*Response Hymn 142

If Thou But Suffer God to Guide Thee

WER NUR DEN LIEBEN GOTT

Prayer Litany for Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunday | Congregation responses in bold

We remember the conviction of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. that “freedom is never voluntarily given by the oppressor; it must be demanded by the oppressed.”

Lord, give courage and determination to those who are oppressed.

We remember Dr. King’s warning that “a negative peace which is the absence of tension” is less than “a positive peace which is the presence of justice.”

Lord, help those who work for peace in our world to cry out first for justice.

We remember Dr. King’s insight that “injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. We are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality tied in a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly affects all indirectly.”

Lord, allow us to see nothing in isolation, but know ourselves bound to one another and to all people under heaven.

We remember Dr. King’s lament that “the contemporary church is often a weak, ineffectual voice with an uncertain sound. It is so often the arch-supporter of the status quo. Far from being disturbed by the presence of the church, the power structure of the average community is consoled by the church’s silent and often vocal sanction of things as they are.”

Lord, we pray that neither this congregation nor any church may be silent in the face of wrong, but that we may be disturbers of the status quo when that is your call to us.

We remember Dr. King’s hope that “dark clouds of racial prejudice will soon pass away and the deep fog of misunderstanding will be lifted from our fear-drenched communities and in some not-too-distant tomorrow the radiant stars of love and brotherhood will shine over our great nation with all their scintillating beauty.”

In faith, Lord, we commend ourselves and our work for justice to your goodness, almighty God. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

Great Day

spiritual, arr. Moses Hogan

Great day, the righteous marching,
God’s gonna build up Zion’s wall.
Chariot moved on the mountaintop, brother,
God’s gonna build up Zion’s wall.

My God spoke and the chariot stopped, sister,
God's gonna build up Zion's wall.
This is the year of jubilee, brother,
God's gonna build up Zion's wall.
My God set his people free, sister,
God's gonna build up Zion's wall.

Great day, that morning, great day,
God's gonna build up Zion's wall.
Great day, my brother, great day, my sister,
God's gonna build up Zion's wall.
