SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Third Sunday after the Epiphany

Sunday, January 21, 2018, 11:00 a.m.

Sadao Watanabe, Jesus Calls His Twelve Disciples

In Mark's Gospel, John the Baptist has been arrested and Jesus begins his public ministry, declaring: "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news." Jesus then calls his first disciples, Simon, Andrew, James, and John. These four lowly fishermen lay down everything to follow Jesus, and the purpose and mission of their entire lives is changed forever.

The Spirit of the Lord Is Upon Me

Edward Elgar
(1857–1934)

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor;
he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind,
to preach the acceptable year of the Lord,
to give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes,
the oil of joy for mourning,
the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness,
that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord,
that he might be glorified.

For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

—Isaiah 61:1–3, 11

BULLETIN COVER ART | In collaboration with Duke Initiatives in Theology and the Arts (DITA), art by Japanese artist Sadao Watanabe will be exhibited in the Chapel January 9–February 21. The exhibition is entitled Beauty Given by Grace: The Biblical Prints of Sadao Watanabe. At age 17, Watanabe (1913–1996) was baptized a Christian, and he quickly combined his new faith with an interest in preserving the traditional Japanese folk art of stencil dying, or katazome. Over time, Watanabe came to be Japan's leading artist to portray biblical scenes. While his work was well-received in his homeland, it was also highly regarded internationally as evidenced by exhibitions at leading institutions such as the British Museum, New York's Museum of Modern Art, the Museum of Fine Arts Boston, the National Museum of Modern Art in Tokyo, and the Vatican Museum. Watanabe's fame notwithstanding, the artist's chief desire was to create art that could be enjoyed by common people and displayed in ordinary settings. With this goal in view, he chose scenes from the Bible as his primary subject matter in order to communicate the truth of Scripture in the Japanese context.
