This morning’s Scripture readings describe the moral mandate given to followers of Jesus. The Lord speaks through the prophet Isaiah to condemn moral hypocrisy and to teach the true fasting that comes from a repentant heart. True fasting leads to feeding the hungry and caring for the vulnerable, while allowing the living waters of God’s grace to repair what has been broken. In Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus urges us to righteousness that gives glory to our heavenly Father. He makes the astonishing claim that he has come to fulfill God’s moral law, calling us to faithful obedience to his word.
The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

GATHERING

CARILLON

PRELUDE

O wie selig seid ihr doch, ihr Frommen
(O How Blessed Are Ye Faithful)
Johannes Brahms
(1833–1897)

Fugue in D, Op. 59, No. 6
Max Reger
(1873–1916)

CHORAL INTROIT

If Ye Love Me
Thomas Tallis
(1505–1585)

If ye love me, keep my commandments, and I will pray the Father. And he shall give you another comforter, that he may bide with you forever, even the spirit of truth.

— John 14:15–17

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 185 (found in the hymnals located in the pew racks)
  When Morning Gilds the Skies
LAUDES DOMINI

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God’s peace.)
PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)
Almighty God, by whose grace alone we are accepted and called to your service: send your Holy Spirit to inspire us and to illuminate your holy word; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON—Isaiah 58:1–12 (OT page 647)
Lector: This is the word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

*GRADUAL HYMN 596 (stanza 1)
Blessed Jesus, at Thy Word
(All turn to face the Gospel Procession.)

*GOSPEL LESSON—Matthew 5:13–20 (NT page 4)
Lector: This is the word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

*GRADUAL HYMN 596 (stanzas 2–3)
Blessed Jesus, at Thy Word

RESPONSE

 CALL TO PRAYER
Minister: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Minister: Let us pray.

 PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
(The congregation responds to each petition: “Hear our prayer.”)

OFFERTORY ANTHEM
And Then Shall Your Light/Felix Mendelssohn
Lord, Our Creator (from Elijah) (1809–1847)

And then shall your light break forth as the light of the morning breaketh; and your health shall speedily spring forth then; and the glory of the Lord ever shall reward you.

Lord, our creator, how excellent thy name is in all the nations! Thou fillest heaven with thy glory. Amen.

—Isaiah 58:8, Psalm 8:1

A child and youth member of the Congregation at Duke University Chapel bring forward offerings collected in the children and youth Sunday School classes.

*DOXOLOGY
Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.
THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD’S PRAYER
(All are encouraged to pray the Lord’s Prayer in the language of their choosing. The English version is number 895 in the hymnal.)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE
All who love Christ, earnestly repent of their sins, and seek to be at peace with God and neighbor are invited to receive Communion. Wine is used for Communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the Communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, there is a server near the Memorial Chapel who will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine. If you will not receive Communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

COMMUNION ANTHEM
This Little Light o’ Mine

This little light o’ mine,
I’m goin’ to let it shine.

Everywhere I go,
I’m goin’ to let it shine.

All through the night,
I’m goin’ to let it shine.

*POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

*BENEDICTION

*CLOSING PROCESSIONAL HYMN 438
Forth in Thy Name, O Lord

*CHORAL BLESSING
God Be in My Head

God be in my head and in my understanding. God be in mine eyes and in my looking, God be in my mouth and in my speaking. God be in my heart and in my thinking. God be at my end and in my departing.
Each Sunday, we are offered the great grace of gathering around the banquet table of our Lord. Whether in the main sanctuary or in Memorial Chapel, our church shares in the feast of thanksgiving—the Eucharist. We meet at the table to remember Jesus’ death for us, to receive grace anew, and to encounter Jesus in the ordinary stuff of life: bread and wine. In this meal by the Holy Spirit, the Father re-members us and makes us one with Christ and with the saints of the past, present, and future. What we consume at the table consumes us, so we become what we eat and are joined into the communion of the Triune God.
CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Today’s Flowers—Flowers for today’s worship service are given to the glory of God by the Nan & Taylor Cole Chapel Endowment.

Today’s Offering—All of today’s cash offerings and undesignated checks will be given to the Chapel’s Annual Fund for Mission and Ministry.

Interfaith Art Exhibit—The “Beyond Bridges” interfaith, visual art exhibition is on display in the Chapel’s nave this February. All are invited to attend a public discussion on the exhibit and reception with the curator this afternoon at 2:00 p.m. in the Chapel. The exhibit showcases 21 works by Arab, Persian, and Jewish contemporary artists from countries of Muslim, Christian, and Jewish backgrounds. Its theme is what “bridges” people to one another, as well as what the three faiths of the artists hold in common across their different creeds and cultures.

Finding Sanctuary Speaker Series—Dr. Diya Abdo, chair of the English and Creative Writing Department at Guilford College, believes private colleges and universities can play a pivotal role in housing and resettling refugees. On Tuesday, February 7, at 6:00 p.m., Dr. Abdo will speak at the Chapel about “Every Campus a Refuge,” an initiative which calls on colleges and universities around the world to assist in resettlement by hosting one refugee family on campus. The talk is the first in the Chapel’s semester-long Finding Sanctuary speaker series.

Jazz Vespers with Cory Henry—A Jazz Vespers worship service at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, March 7, combines the form of traditional evening vespers with a time of open prayer and the music of Grammy Award-winning keyboardist Cory Henry. Henry’s musical roots are in gospel, jazz and soul, and his instrument of choice is the Hammond B-3 organ. The service will be led by Chapel Dean Luke A. Powery and includes Scripture, a literary reading, and three prayer stations. The Chapel’s C. Eric Lincoln Minister, Joshua Lazard, is the service’s liturgist.
