Service of Worship

Transfiguration Sunday
February 7, 2016, Page Auditorium
Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Bridging Faith and Learning ∞

"Icon of the Transfiguration," by Theophanes the Greek, ca. 1408.

In today's Scripture passages we see Moses' face shining with the glory of God, having received the covenant of the Law from God's own hand. In Luke we see one of the most extraordinary events of the Gospels—the Transfiguration of Christ. High atop a mountain, Jesus is clothed in his majestic divinity, as Moses and Elijah appear from heaven to converse with him. The Apostle Paul later teaches that while Moses' face had to be veiled after encountering the Lord, through Christ we are given freedom to approach God boldly. Jesus has torn the veil between earth and heaven, and he invites us to enter the new covenant through faith.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in Page Auditorium by the seats at the front left of the stage, in front of the organ. Immediately following Communion, a service of prayer for healing will be held in the same location. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

During the prelude the congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the Box Office on the second floor of Page.
