What does it mean to be the people of God? In Isaiah, the people of Israel plead for God’s restoration and wonder why God does not accept their fasting and prayer. The prophet responds that their behavior contradicts their rituals—they serve their own needs and oppress their workers rather than fast to loose the bonds of injustice. In Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples that they are salt and light—elements that purify and give flavor, as well as illuminate darkness and reveal beauty.

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 178
Hope of the World          VICAR

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)
Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE
(All exchange signs and words of God’s peace.)

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)
Holy God, you know the disorder of our sinful lives: set straight our wandering hearts, and bend our wills to love your goodness and your glory in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mission Announcement

Offertory Anthem
Hope for Resolution
Of the Father’s love begotten,
E’er the worlds began to be.
He is Alpha and Omega,
He the source, the ending, he.
Of the things that are, that have been,
And that future years shall see,
Evermore and evermore.

O, that birth, forever blessed,
When the virgin, full of grace,
By the Holy Ghost conceiving,
Bare the savior of our race.
And the babe, the world’s redeemer,
First revealed his sacred face,
Evermore and evermore.

O ye heights of heaven adore him,
Angel hosts his praises sing,
Powers, dominions bow before him,
And extol our God and King.
Let no tongue on earth be silent,
Every voice in concert ring
Evermore and evermore.

Thula sizwe, ungabokhala,
Nation, do not cry,

uf Jehovah wakho uzokungobela.
Jehovah will protect us.

Inkululeko, sizoyithola,
We will attain freedom,

uf Jehovah wakho uzokungobela.
Jehovah will protect us.

—South African freedom song
*DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Fuqua School of Business and its work in forming students to be ethical leaders in business, management, and entrepreneurship. The ushers bring a management text book to the altar.

In Durham, we remember those who are unemployed, underemployed, and on low income, and we give thanks to employers who seek to offer a living wage. The ushers bring forward a wallet.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING
(Musical Setting A, found on page 17 in the hymnal)

*THE LORD’S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ’s body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

About Today’s Guest Preacher

Today we are pleased to welcome the Rev. Barbara Brown Taylor as the Peter J. Gomes Distinguished Guest Preacher. She is the Butman Professor of Religion at Piedmont College in rural northeast Georgia. An Episcopal priest since 1984, she is the author of a dozen books, including the New York Times bestseller An Altar in the World. Her new book, Learning to Walk in the Dark, will be published by HarperOne in April. The Rev. Taylor and her husband, Ed, live on a working farm in the foothills of the Appalachians with wild turkeys, red foxes, two old quarter horses, and too many chickens.
ChaPel announcements

Today’s Flowers—The flowers for the worship service today are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach Family Trust.

Today’s Guest MusIcIans and Mission Of the Mo nth Offe ring—Duke Chapel is pleased to welcome the students and staff of Kidznotes, a program that provides free intensive after-school classical music training in voice and orchestra to underserved children in Durham from kindergarten to 5th grade. All of today’s undesignated checks and offerings will go to support Kidznotes. Kidznotes was inspired by El Sistema (The System), which began thirty-five years ago in Venezuela and has grown into an internationally acclaimed program emulated around the world. The program aims to empower the children of Durham by fostering each child’s cognitive, social, and emotional growth through an intense music education program, preparing each child for a life of success. Chapel PathWays Fellow Mark Kagika (who also sings with the Chapel Choir and Vespers Choir) is serving his fellowship year with Kidznotes, and Chapel Choir members Benjamin Mauritz and Sarah Bader regularly volunteer with them. For more information, or to donate online, visit www.kidznotes.org.

Duke Chapel Event Email List—If you would like to receive emails about upcoming events sponsored by Duke Chapel, such as concerts, dialogues, special worship services, and more, please visit www.chapel.duke.edu/contact and sign up via the link in the left-hand box.

Parking at Duke Chapel—Do you like to attend Chapel events on evenings and weekends but dislike the difficulty and cost of parking on campus? Duke Parking and Transportation services offers a Night Permit for $22 annually, which allows you to park on campus after 5:00 p.m. and on weekends. The permit is renewed annually in August. Please contact Parking at 919-684-PARK for more information. It is free to park at the Chapel on Sundays until 1:00 p.m.
The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

Christian Education—Christian education classes for all ages are held on Sunday mornings from 9:45-10:45 a.m. in the lowest level of the Westbrook Building in the Divinity School. New participants are welcome at any time. Please contact the Congregation office at 919-684-3917 or congregation@duke.edu for more information.

Adult Forum—On Sunday, February 16, Hans Arneson, Ph.D. candidate in Religion at Duke, will present a program on “Strategies for Reading a Pauline Letter.” The forum will be held in Room 0012 of the Westbrook Building of the Divinity School at 9:45 a.m.

Back Pew Collection—The February “back pew collection” is for the Achievement Academy, which assists young adults in reaching their educational goals. The Academy welcomes donations of flash drives (new or used), multiuse copy/printer paper, spiral notebooks, Texas Instrument 30XS calculators, black dry erase markers, lined notebook paper, 1.5” or 3” ring binders (no larger ones, please), digital minute timers, two-pocket folders, paper towels, paper cups, and Clorox wipes. Donations may be placed in the back pews through February 16.

40s and 50s Dinner—Good food and fellowship is the goal of gathering adults in their 40s and 50s on the second Friday of the month. On Friday, February 14, at 6:00 p.m., the gathering spot will be Nosh, located at 2812 Erwin Road, Suite 101 in Durham. For additional information, contact David Eck at david.eck@earthlink.net

Saturday Service Project—On Saturday, February 15, from 9:00 a.m.-12:00 noon, volunteers are needed to paint a study room at the Achievement Academy. The Academy provides education and support for young adults who are striving to earn the NC Equivalency Diploma. If you are interested in helping with this project, either by painting on February 15 or lending painting supplies, please email brad.troxell@duke.edu or janeafellows@msn.com or call the Congregation office at 919-684-3917.

Urban Ministries Dinner—The Congregation will next provide and serve dinner at Urban Ministries, 410 Liberty St. in Durham on Wednesday, February 26, and Sunday, March 9. Volunteers are needed to donate lasagnas and to serve the meal. Lasagnas are to be dropped off at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday and 5:45 p.m. on Sunday. The time commitment for those who serve is approximately 90 minutes. If you wish to contribute food or help serve, please call Ned Arnett at 919-489-4133 or e-mail edward.arnett@duke.edu
You are the Seed

Sois la semilla

You are the seed that will grow a new sprout; you're a star that will shine in the night; you are the yeast and a small grain of salt, a beacon to glow in the lead the whole world through valleys and pastures of ginning to rise, a new loaf of bread it will dark. You are the dawn that will bring a new day; you're the peace. You are the friends that I chose for myself, the yield. There is no place for a city to hide, nor a wheat that will bear golden grain; you are a sting and a word that I want to proclaim. You are the new kingdom can cover its might; may your good deeds show a soft, gentle touch, my witnesses where'er you go. built on a rock where justice and truth always reign. world in despair a path that will lead all to God.

Refrain continues overleaf.
Refrain
Sung in English or Spanish

Go, my friends, go to the world, proclaiming love to all,
Id, amigos, por el mundo, anunciando el amor;

messengers of my forgiving peace, eternal love.
mensajeros de la vida, de la paz y el perdón.

Be, my friends, a loyal witness, from the dead I arose;
Sed, amigos, testigos de mi resurrección.

"Lo, I'll be with you forever, till the end of the world."
Id llevando mi presencia: con vosotros estoy.

MUSIC: Cesareo Gabarain, 1979
FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS
† Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.
† For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today’s docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.
† Hearing assist units and a Braille hymnal are available at the attendant’s desk at the entry way of the Chapel. See the Chapel attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print Bibles or hymnals for the worship service this morning.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN
† Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet, or change infants are also welcome.
† Activity Bags are available at the rear of the Chapel for children 5 or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service. Children’s bulletins are available from the ushers.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you would like to receive the weekly eNews from the Congregation or have any questions, please email congregation@duke.edu or call 919-684-3917.
