

Duke UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

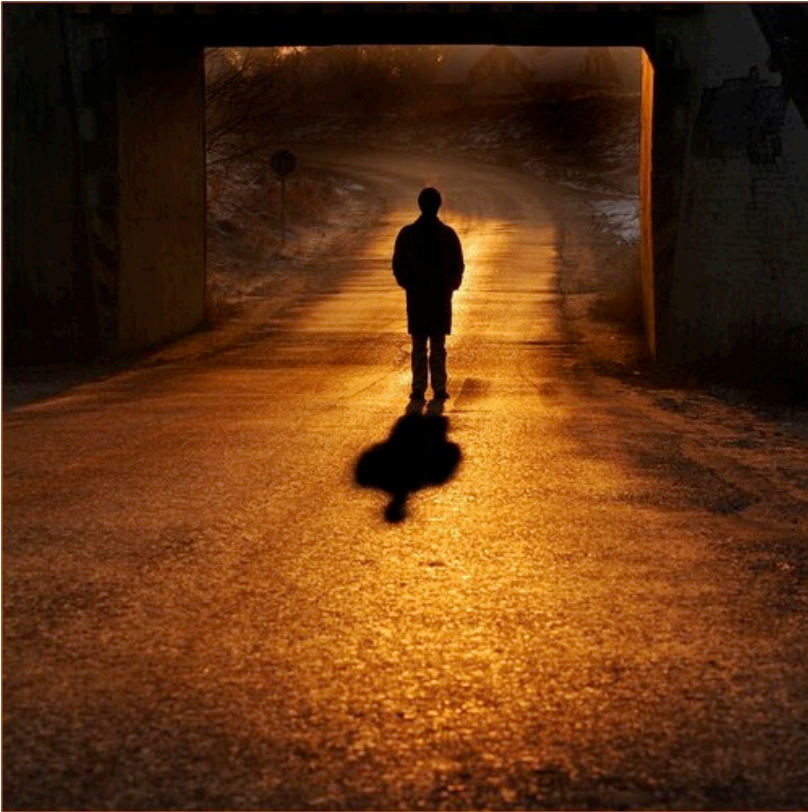

Service of Worship

Sixth Sunday after the Epiphany

February 16, 2014

Eleven o'clock in the morning

✻ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ✻

For Israel in the Old Testament and for Jews today, God's gift of the law is not for their punishment or restriction but for their flourishing and blessing. God desires a response of participation and obedience. In Deuteronomy, God lays the law before his people with choices of life and blessing, death and adversity, with a plea that his people choose life. Psalm 119 is often known as a love song to the law. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus renews Israel's understanding of the law. It is not just that misguided actions (murder and adultery) are harmful; the thoughts behind the actions (anger and lust) are just as damaging to the people of God.

*At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel.
Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.*

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

—versification of Psalm 119:1-8 by Robert Horton

All who walk in blame-less ways, keep-ing laws that God im-parts,
Are my ways with God's de-crees well and true? May I so claim?

Blest are they who will-ing walk, seek-ing him with all their heart.
Then, re - gard - ing his com-mands, shall I not be put to shame.

Heart-i - ly they chart their course; god - ly pre-cepts steer them on.
As I learn God's right-eous laws, my heart longs to sing his praise.

Led by sta-tutes fit and just, on - ward they de - light to run.
Lord, I cry a - loud to you: Lead me in your blame-less ways.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers for the worship service today are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach Family Trust.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for the Chapel Development Fund. The Chapel's current focus is to upgrade the Chapel cameras and video capabilities to digital and high definition in order to better serve the thousands of worshippers locally, in Duke Hospital, and around the globe who tune in weekly.

THE APOSTLES' CREED—Duke Chapel has made the decision to return to the traditional version of the Apostles' Creed, which includes the statement Jesus "descended into hell." This return is motivated out of the pastoral and theological conviction that this line of the creed forcefully reminds the Church that Christ's presence goes with us, even to the darkest and most tortured parts of our lives. Even hell is not beyond the bounds of Christ's presence, grace, and redemption. To quote the apostle Paul in Romans 8:38, "For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, or things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord."

ORGAN RECITAL NEXT WEEK—Next Sunday, February 23, at 5:00 p.m., organist Dorothy Papadakos will present a silent film accompaniment on the Aeolian organ featuring the 1923 version of The Hunchback of Notre Dame (starring Lon Chaney). The program is free, and all are welcome.
