Transfiguration Sunday marks the last Sunday before the season of Lent. It represents a turning point when Jesus leaves his ministry in Galilee and faces towards Jerusalem and the cross. We are invited to reflect upon Jesus’ identity through the revelations of the season of Epiphany and the Lenten journey to his death on Good Friday. Thus gospel lesson looks back, echoing the proclamation from Jesus’ baptism, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased.” But it also looks forward: Jesus’ appearance on the hill between two prophets anticipates his later appearance on another hill between two thieves.
The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

INTROIT
Make Me Over                                  Tonéx
(b. 1975)

You know my other side.
I can no longer hide,
Let you down so many times,
Sin freshly crucifies.
Thought that I had a plan,
Had it all figured out,
But the more that you tried to be by my side,
The more I put you out.
Lord, make me over.
Time after time I failed you,
Pierced your side when they already nailed you.
Jesus heal my open wounds.
I just want to be more like you.
Father I let you down,
What’s not like you, just take it out.
Reconcile me, Jesus, I just want to please you.
Wash me and make me whole.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against

Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

Ariel Ramírez (b. 1921)

Gloria a Dios en las alturas y en la tierra, paz a los hombres que ama el Señor. Te alabamos, te bendecimos, te adoramos, glorificamos, te damos gracias por tu inmensa gloria. Señor Dios, Rey celestial, Dios Padre todopoderoso.

Señor, hijo único Jesucristo, Señor Dios, cordero de Dios, Hijo del Padre, tú que quitas los pecados del mundo, ten piedad de nosotros. Tú que quitas los pecados del mundo, atiende nuestra súplica. Tú que reinas con el Padre, ten piedad de nosotros. Porque tú sólo eres santo, sólo tú altísimo Jesucristo, con el Espíritu Santo, en la Gloria de Dios Padre. Amén.

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to men who love the Lord. We praise thee, we bless thee, we adore thee, we glorify thee, we give thee thanks for thy great glory. Lord God, heavenly king, God the Father Almighty.
Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, thou who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou who takest away the sins of the world, hear our prayer. Thou who reigns with the Father, have mercy upon us. LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God above, ye heavenly host,

Thanksgiving and Communion

This morning we give thanks for the Department of Art and Art History. We celebrate how it gives concrete form to the imagination through the production of art, while also demonstrating the profound ways that artwork both reflects and speaks to social and cultural contexts. Ushers bring a book of sacred art to the altar.

In Durham, we remember those who suffer from being exploited sexually and those who are addicted to pornography and prostitution. Ushers bring forward an image of the woman from Luke 7 who washes Jesus’ feet with her hair.

The Great Thanksgiving
(Musical setting A, found on page 17 in the hymnal.)

The Lord’s Prayer (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

Sharing of the Bread and Wine

All those who have become members of Christ’s body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY’S FLOWERS—The flowers for the worship service today are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach Family Trust.

TODAY’S OFFERING—All of today’s cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support the Chapel’s PathWays program, which offers students opportunities to discern God’s call for their lives through study, counsel, service, and community. Dr. Charles and Mrs. Ann Sanders, together with a couple who have asked not to be named, have pledged to match all PathWays gifts on a one-to-one basis up to $60,000.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES—Duke Chapel will have two services (8:00 a.m. and 5:15 p.m.) on Ash Wednesday, February 22. The Rev. Katie Owen, campus minister for Westminster Presbyterian Fellowship, will offer a homily, and there will be an opportunity to receive the imposition of ashes. The 5:15 p.m. service will include the Duke Vespers Ensemble. Ash Wednesday marks the first day of the season of Lent. Lent encompasses the 40 days prior to Easter Sunday (not including the 6 Sundays, which are considered feast days and not counted as days of penance) and is traditionally a season of repentance and fasting.

ORGAN RECITAL—Next Sunday, February 26, at 5:00 p.m., prize-winning organist Dongho Lee will present a recital on the Aeolian organ in Duke Chapel. Her program will feature works by Elgar, Buck, Franck, Holst, and Duruflé. The recital is free, and all are invited.
The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

Adult Forum—On Sunday, February 26, the Rev. Gaston Warner, Director of Church Relations and Strategic Planning for ZOE Ministry, will lead a discussion called “Re-thinking Missions: How to Engage in Charity Without Eroding Dignity.” The forum will be held in Room 0012 of the Westbrook Building of the Divinity School at 9:45 a.m.

Vigil Against Violence—The 20th Annual Vigil Against Violence will be held on March 1, at 7:00 p.m. at Shepherds House United Methodist Church at 107 N. Driver Street. This event honors the memory of people murdered in Durham in 2011, and gives people the opportunity to mourn as a community and to come together for healing. Dean Sam Wells will be among the speakers.

Forty-Day Sojourns: A Lenten Study—Forty-day journeys appear throughout the Biblical narrative. God sent a forty-day flood in the book of Genesis. Moses sojourned forty days at Mt. Sinai. Elijah embarked on a forty-day journey to Mt. Horeb. Jonah was called on a forty-day adventure to Ninevah. And out in the wilderness, Jesus was tested for forty days. Throughout this Lenten study, we will explore how our stories intersect with these Bible stories throughout Lenten season. If you are interested in joining this group, please contact Brad Troxell at brad.troxell@duke.edu. The group will meet on Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning February 29. Location TBD.

About Today’s Guest Preacher

We are pleased to welcome the Rev. Dr. Samuel Lloyd III as the Sterly and Pelham Wilder, Jr., Distinguished Guest Preacher. The Rev. Samuel T. Lloyd III is Priest-in-Charge of Trinity Church in Boston, which he served previously as Rector from 1993 to 2005. This follows seven years as dean of the Washington National Cathedral. There he worked to make the Cathedral a place of significant worship for the nation, a gathering place for conversations about faith and public life, and a destination for pilgrims and visitors. In addition he created for the first time a congregation within the Cathedral’s life. Prior to going to Boston in 1993, he held positions as University Chaplain at the University of the South, Rector of the Church of St. Paul and the Redeemer in Chicago, and Assistant Professor of Religious Studies at the University of Virginia. Dr. Lloyd holds an M.Div. from Virginia Theological Seminary and a Ph.D. in English Literature from the University of Virginia. He earned an M.A. in English Literature from Georgetown University and a B.A. from the University of Mississippi.
We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you are interested in making Duke Chapel your home church, please contact the Rev. Bruce Puckett at 684-3917. www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.
