Service of Worship

Third Sunday in Lent
February 28, 2016, Page Auditorium
Eleven o'clock in the morning

≈ Bridging Faith and Learning ≈

“Ad manus (To the Hands),” by Robyn Sand Anderson.

Today’s Scripture readings point to the necessity of repentance, and the promise of God’s everlasting covenant. Isaiah calls us to abandon the scarcity of sin, and embrace the abundance of the Lord’s righteousness. Paul teaches the Corinthian church and us to learn from Israel’s history and trust in God’s faithfulness, while in Luke’s Gospel Jesus urges us to turn to him. The third piece in our Lenten “Membra Jesu nostri” series (pictured above) is entitled “To the Hands.” Jesus’ hands were cruelly pierced for our sins, and as he chose to be bound to the cross for us, so we are invited to be released through the asking of God’s forgiveness.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in Page Auditorium by the seats at the front left of the stage, in front of the organ. Immediately following Communion, a service of prayer for healing will be held in the same location. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

During the prelude the congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the Box Office on the second floor of Page.
