SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany
Sunday, February 4, 2018, 11:00 a.m.

Sadao Watanabe, Laborers in the Vineyard

In this morning's Old Testament reading, the prophet Isaiah records a thundering declaration of God's sovereignty from the Lord's own mouth. The Holy One who created and calls out the starry host by name cannot be compared to any other and has no equal. Amidst this proclamation of God's awesome power comes a promise to God's people: "even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted, but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint."

Greetings and Announcements

*Processional Hymn 139

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

LOBE DEN HERREN

*Prayers of Confession and Words of Assurance | In unison:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*Peace | All exchange signs and words of God's peace.

Proclamation

Prayer for Illumination | In unison:

Lord Jesus Christ, light of the nations and glory of Israel: send your Spirit to illuminate your holy word and sanctify us by its truth; in your name we pray, Amen.

Go Down, Moses

Spiritual
arr. Mark Hayes (b. 1953)

Go down, Moses, go down to Egypt land! Let me tell ya 'bout a story 'long time ago way down in Egypt land. Seems the Pharaoh had taken control of things, had the people in the palm of his hand. But a certain group of people called the Israelites didn't want to play his game (Oh, no). So the Pharaoh forced the people into slavery and he caused them grief and shame. Well, the Lord in the heavens looked down and saw His people and their pain, so He called out a man from Midian, and Moses was his name. Well, Moses was attendin' his flock one day when a bush began to burn. And the Lord spoke to Moses from the burnin' bush, said, "The Pharaoh's got a lesson to learn!" Whoa! Go down, Moses, way down in Egypt land. Tell ole Pharaoh, let my people go! Well, Moses had some doubts about takin' this job. He felt a little bit out of his league. Leading out his people from Pharaoh's hand was quite a job indeed. "What will I say and tell me how will they know that I'm the man that's appointed by You? A leader I'm not, but I bet for this spot my brother Aaron will do better for you.” But the Lord said, “Go down, Moses...” Back by the bush the Lord kept on; He knew He had the right man. “You need a sign, well, that’s just fine. Just look what you have in your hand.” All it seemed to Moses was a wooden rod, until he threw it down. Imagine his surprise when a snake appeared as soon as it hit the ground! Well, Moses started runnin’, but the Lord said, “Stop, pick the serpent up by the tail.” What the Lord commanded seemed crazy to him, and he protested to no avail. When he finally picked the serpent up, you know what occurred. The snake became a rod in his hand. The miracle that happened gave old Moses the strength to lead his people to the promised land!

*Doxology

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Thanksgiving and Holy Communion

*The Lord's Prayer | All are encouraged to pray the Lord's Prayer in the language of their choosing. The English version is number 895 in the hymnal.

Sharing of the Bread and Wine | All who love Christ, earnestly repent of their sins, and seek to be at peace with God and neighbor are invited to receive Communion. Wine is used for Communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the Communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, there is a server near the Memorial Chapel who will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine. If you will not receive Communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

This Little Light of Mine

Traditional Spiritual
arr. Moses Hogan (1957–2003)

This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine.
All through the night, I'm gonna let it shine.
My God gave it to me, I'm gonna let it shine.
Oh, Lord, children. Hallelujah, children.
In my home, all over the world, let it shine.

CHILDREN AT COMMUNION | The Chapel welcomes families with children. On this Communion Sunday, families with children are invited to sit up front, so they can better observe The Great Thanksgiving. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

TODAY'S FLOWERS | Flowers for today's worship service are given to the glory of God by the Nan & Taylor Cole Chapel Endowment.

TODAY'S OFFERING | All of today's cash offerings and checks written to Duke University Chapel will be given to the Chapel's Development Fund for Mission and Ministry.

GUEST CHOIR | Kidznotes is inspired by the international program El Sistema, an evidence-based system of music for social change founded in Venezuela in 1975 by economist, composer, and conductor José Antonio Abreu. Their mission is to change lives through ever-expanding participation in youth orchestras, bands, and choirs. In partnership with Durham Public Schools and the Wake County Public School System, Kidznotes provides students with an orchestral instrument of their own and 8–10 hours a week of intensive instruction at no cost to their families.

CHAPEL TOUR | For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today's docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.

ACCESSIBILITY | Large print hymnals and bulletins are available at the front desk. Hearing assistance units are available at the back left sound desk.

RECEIVE PRAYER | Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.

FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN | Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel lower level, beginning at 10:45 a.m. each week.

ENGAGE

BREAD FOR THE WORLD LEARNING SIMULATION | All are invited to attend a learning simulation hosted by Bread for the World this Wednesday, February 7, at 7:00 p.m. in the Alumni Memorial Commons Room of Duke Divinity School. This simulation will be an opportunity to learn in an interactive way about the racial wealth gap in the United States. If you would like to attend, or for more information, contact Bruce Puckett at bruce.puckett@duke.edu.

ENGAGE (Continued)

WELCOME TO DUKE CHAPEL | If you have questions about the ministries of Duke Chapel or the Congregation at Duke Chapel, please stop by the Welcome Desk in the narthex. Those staffing the table will be happy to answer your questions.

NEXT WEEK IN WORSHIP | Next week in the Sunday morning worship service, the Chapel will welcome Dr. Claudio Carvalhaes as the guest preacher. An associate professor of worship at Union Theological Seminary, Dr. Carvalhaes is a theologian, liturgist and artist, and a native Brazilian. Also participating in the service will be the student gospel choir United in Praise. Formerly the Modern Black Mass Choir, United in Praise is a diverse student group comprised of students with a love for Christ using their talents to glorify God. The group is advised by the Chapel's C. Eric Lincoln Minister for Student Engagement.

ASH WEDNESDAY | Ash Wednesday, which marks the beginning of Lent, is February 14. Worship services with the imposition of ashes will be held at 8:00 a.m and 5:15 p.m. in Duke Chapel. The Rev. Crawford Stevener, campus minister for Reformed University Fellowship, will offer the sermon. All are welcome to attend.

NEW STUDENT LIVING-LEARNING COMMUNITY | The Chapel has partnered with Residence Life to form Eruditio et Religio, Duke's newest living-learning community. The program is built around fostering relationships with people of diverse religious traditions and preparing students to work together for the common good. The program offers Duke undergraduate students curricular and co-curricular opportunities in education, intentional living, and civic engagement through service and social action. Students may apply online by tomorrow, February 5, at chapel.duke.edu/interfaith.

ORGAN RECITAL SERIES | The Chapel's Organ Recital Series continues next Sunday, February 11, at 5:00 p.m. with performances by Dongho Lee and Andrew Pester. A native of South Korea, Dongho Lee has been praised for her "drive and energy" and her "ability to tenderly shape a musical line." She will be joined by her husband, Andrew Pester, at the Aeolian organ in a transcription of The Planets by Gustav Holst, celebrating the centennial of this popular orchestral work's premiere. The concert is free and open to the public. Learn more at chapel.duke.edu/music.

DISASTER RELIEF SERVICE TRIP | Neighbors need help in recovering from floods and hurricanes. Volunteers are invited to join a Congregation at Duke Chapel-sponsored Disaster Relief Service Trip to Summerton, South Carolina, from Sunday, March 11, to Saturday, March 17. Additional details are available online <http://congregation.chapel.duke.edu/relief> and by calling the congregation office at 919-684-3917. Registration and deposit are required by next Sunday, February 11.
