Service of Worship

Second Sunday of Lent

March 16, 2014

Eleven o'clock in the morning

✻ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ✻

“Jesus and Nicodemus,” by Caspar Luiken, 1712

In the second Sunday of Lent, the scripture lessons emphasize faith and obedience. In Genesis, God calls Abraham from his home to be a blessing to the earth. He follows this command, even in the face of uncertainty. In John’s gospel, Jesus tells Nicodemus that he must be born again. In doing so, Jesus intimates that Nicodemus, though a leader among the Pharisees, does not yet understand true obedience which grows from loving trust in the living God.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Office of Information Technology. We celebrate the essential role it plays in managing Duke's collaborative and administrative IT services and in encouraging the campus to explore new ways to use technology for teaching, learning, and research. Ushers bring an iPad to the altar.

In Durham, we remember those who are victims of homicide and the families, friends, and neighborhoods touched by these deaths. A representative brings a yellow rose and a list of names of the people who died violently in Durham this year.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

COMMUNION ANTHEMS

When the Stars Fall

Stephen Hatfield
(b.1953)

When the sea shakes, then I trust my savior.
When the sea breaks, still I trust that if the sea crumbles into rust, tumbles into dust, yet will I trust my savior.
When the stars call, then I trust my savior.
When the stars fall, still I trust my savior.
And if the stars crumble into rust, tumble into dust,
yet will I trust my savior.
When my heart sighs, then I trust my savior.
When my heart cries, still I trust my savior.
And if my heart crumbles into rust, tumbles into dust,
yet will I trust my saviour.
When the stars fall, then I trust my saviour.

God Be In My Head

Andrea Ramsey

God be in my mouth and in my speaking.
God be at my end and my beginning and all days in between.
