Service of Worship

Fourth Sunday of Lent

March 30, 2014

Eleven o'clock in the morning

Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God

Today's scripture readings reflect on the passage from darkness to light. In the letter to the Ephesians, Paul uses imagery of darkness and light to reveal how light both exposes the dirt and sin of our lives, while also illuminating goodness and truth. The passage from John relates the story of Jesus healing the blind man. Jesus covers the man's eyes with mud and then tells him to wash his eyes. When the man washes his eyes, he regains his physical sight; but the washing also awakens the man's spiritual sight. He then claims Jesus as Lord.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation. The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

Cast Thy Burden upon the Lord (from Elijah) Felix Mendelssohn
(1809-1847)

Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee. He never will suffer the righteous to fall: He is at thy right hand. Thy mercy, Lord, is great, and far above the heavens. Let none be made ashamed, that wait upon thee. —Psalms 55:22, 16:8, 108:4, 25:3

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

The King of Love My Shepherd Is

ST. COLUMBA

arr. John Rutter

(b. 1945)

The King of love my Shepherd is, whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am his and he is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow, my ransomed soul he leadeth,
And where the verdant pastures grow, with food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, but yet in love he sought me,
And on his shoulder gently laid, and home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill with thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still, thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight; thy unction grace bestoweth:
And O what transport of delight from thy pure chalice floweth!

And so through all the length of days thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise within thy house forever.

*DOXOLOGY

OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below;

Praise God above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering. We celebrate its mission to facilitate the development of well rounded, productive, and ethical individuals who are well versed in technical as well as social, political, and environmental issues. The ushers bring a hard drive to the altar.

In Durham, we give thanks for those with mental and physical disabilities, and all who accompany them along their way. A representative brings forward a Reality Ministries brochure.

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

FACULTY VISIONING SESSION

Dean of the Chapel, Luke Powery, is hosting a visioning session for local faculty (active or retired, from Duke or any other institution of higher education) after worship today. Lunch is included and the session will be in the Chapel lounge downstairs in the Chapel basement. This session will include visioning and brainstorming about the future of Duke Chapel as it relates to faculty involvement.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S GREENERY—Throughout the season of Lent, the Chapel greenery is provided by contributors to the Nancy Hanks Fund.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support the Chapel's PathWays program, which offers students opportunities to discern God's call for their lives through study, counsel, service, and community.

VESPERS CONCERT—Today at 4:00 p.m., the Duke Vespers Ensemble and consort of Renaissance wind instruments will perform Orlando di Lasso's rarely-performed "Tears of Saint Peter," a cycle of sacred madrigals composed on texts by Luigi Tansillo. The entirety of the work takes place during the span of a few verses in Luke's gospel (Luke 22: 60b-62) and dwells at length on the force of Christ's powerful glance and its effect on Peter, who bewails his own cowardice and longs for a death that he believes is well deserved. The solemn nature of texts and music create an atmosphere best classified as a Lenten meditation, rather than either worship or typical concert performance.

ST. LUKE PASSION—The Chapel Choir will perform the U.S. premiere of the brand-new St. Luke Passion by renowned Scottish composer James MacMillan on Palm Sunday, April 13, at 4:00 p.m. Dr. MacMillan has created visceral music that casts the words of Luke's gospel in highly textured, vivid, and expressive music that captures all the agony and drama of Christ's final days on earth. The words of Christ are presented in the pure sounds of a children's choir (the Durham's Children Choir and the Riverside High School Sirens), while the Chapel Choir describes the action and the orchestra (the Orchestra Pro Cantores) enfolds the choirs in graphic, sonorous, and highly coloristic sounds. The concert is presented in collaboration with Duke Initiatives for Theology in the Arts (DITA) and Duke Divinity School. Tickets to the concert are $20 general admission and $5 for students. They are available at the Duke Box Office.

DUKE CHAPEL EVENT EMAIL LIST—If you would like to receive emails about upcoming events sponsored by Duke Chapel, such as concerts, dialogues, special worship services, and more, please visit www.chapel.duke.edu/contact and sign up via the link in the left-hand box.
