In today’s Gospel passage, Jesus displays the depths of his human compassion as he weeps for his dead friend Lazarus. He commands the dead man to be raised to life, prefiguring his own death and resurrection. Centuries earlier the prophet Ezekiel was taken to a valley of dry bones and was commanded to prophesy life over what was dead in the house of Israel. Jesus weeps for our human brokenness too, and invites us to allow him to raise what is dead in us to life.
The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

Hope of the World

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (IN UNISON)

God of mercy, you sent Jesus Christ to seek and save the lost. We confess that we have strayed from you and turned aside from your way. We are misled by pride, for we see ourselves pure when we are stained, and great when we are small. We have failed in love, neglected justice, and ignored your truth. Have mercy, O God, and forgive our sin. Return us to paths of righteousness through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God’s peace.)
