The gospel lesson on the second Sunday of Easter each year is the story of “Doubting Thomas,” Jesus’ disciple who refused to believe the other disciples’ account of Jesus’ resurrection without seeing it for himself. The placement of this story of incredulity immediately following the joy of Easter acknowledges the complexity of belief. The Easter season, with its emphasis on new beginnings and new life, is traditionally a time for baptism. Today we welcome one child into the Church through the sacrament of baptism.
The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

CHORAL INTROIT

O Sons and Daughters

15th c. French melody

arr. Alice Parker and Robert Shaw

O sons and daughters, let us sing!
The King of Heaven, the glorious King,
Over death today rose triumphing. Alleluia!

When Thomas first the tidings heard,
How they had seen the risen Lord,
He doubted the disciples’ word.

“My pierced side, O Thomas, see:
My hands, my feet, I show to thee;
Not faithless but believing be.”

No longer Thomas then denied,
He saw the feet, the hands, the side:
“Thou art my Lord and God,” he cried.

flowed life for the world: raise your people from sin and death and build them as living stones into the temple of your Church. Amen.
THE DECISION

PRAYER OVER THE WATER AND PROFESSION OF FAITH

The minister blesses the waters of baptism.

Do you believe and trust in God the Father, source of all being and life, the one for whom we exist?
I believe and trust in God the Father.

Do you believe and trust in God the Son, who took our human nature, died for us, and rose again?
I believe and trust in God the Son.

Do you believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God, and makes Christ known in the world?
I believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit.

This is the faith of the Church.
This is our faith. We believe and trust in one God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Thanksgiving
This morning we give thanks for the department of Art, Art History, and Visual Studies. We celebrate how it gives concrete form to the imagination through the production of art, while also demonstrating the profound ways that artwork both reflects and speaks to social and cultural contexts. The ushers bring a book of sacred art to the altar.

In Durham, we remember volunteers within our community who help recently released prisoners adjust to newly directed life. A representative brings forward a photo of Duke Chapel’s Reconciliation and Re-entry Team.

Reality Ministries has an on-site school (New Horizons), after-school programming (including sports, tutoring, and small group Bible-studies), and a program called “Real Friends” which focuses on adults. Reality Ministry’s goal is to be a place that is reflective of God’s heart for humanity—a safe place where everyone is valued and accepted. The Reality Center is located on the corner of Gregson St. and Lamond Ave. near the Durham School of the Arts. You may learn more at www.realityministriesinc.org. SPRING VESPERS CONCERT

On Sunday, April 21, at 4:00 p.m., the Duke Vespers Ensemble will present Dietrich Buxtehude’s rarely performed oratorio Membra Jesu Nostri. This oratorio is a 17th-century masterwork constructed of seven cantatas, each dedicated to one of “the most holy limbs of our suffering Jesus.” A professional orchestra of period instruments will join the Vespers Ensemble. As a complement to the music, Chapel Music has commissioned original artwork from artist Robyn Sand Anderson. These works are inspired by the text and music of the oratorio and will be displayed in the Chapel before the performance. The event is free and open to all.
