Almighty God, we give you thanks for surrounding us,
as daylight fades, with the brightness of your vesper

Daylight declines, night comes upon us,
Let us pray to God for his protection,
May he be our guardian,
And defend us from the wicked devils

Postlude

Please stand as you are able.*

You are welcome to stay for the organ postlude.

Should you need to leave, please do so quietly and respectfully.

There will be no Vespers Service next Thursday, April 17, which is Maundy Thursday. All are welcome to a Footwashing Service at 6:30 p.m. in the Memorial Chapel followed by the Chapel's Maundy Thursday service at 7:30 p.m.

The final Vespers service of the spring semester will be on April 24, 2014.

Today's service includes anthems connected to the Orthodox liturgy. This year bears a unique harmony between the Orthodox Church and Western denominations with Easter falling on the same date. One distinct difference you will notice from Duke Chapel's customary worship practice is the presence of "Alleluia" in the introit, which is an expression traditionally removed from Lenten worship in most Western Christian denominations. However, most Orthodox churches do not observe this tradition, and so in honor of our Orthodox brothers and sisters in Christian faith, we've retained it for today's service.
