The gospel lesson on the second Sunday of Easter each year is the story of “Doubting Thomas,” Jesus’ disciple who refused to believe the other disciples’ account of Jesus’ resurrection without seeing it for himself. The placement of this story of incredulity immediately following the joy of Easter acknowledges the complexity of belief. The Easter season, with its emphasis on new beginnings and new life, is traditionally a time for baptism. Today we welcome two children into the Church through the sacrament of baptism. Today’s offertory anthem is René Clausen’s anthem “It Is Well with My Soul,” which was recently commissioned in honor of the Chapel Choir.
At the close of today’s service, the Lord’s Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord’s Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

THE DECISION

PRAYER OVER THE WATER AND PROFESSION OF FAITH

The minister blesses the waters of baptism.

Do you believe and trust in God the Father, source of all being and life, the one for whom we exist?
I believe and trust in God the Father.

Do you believe and trust in God the Son, who took our human nature, died for us, and rose again?
I believe and trust in God the Son.
Do you believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God, and makes Christ known in the world?

I believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit.

This is the faith of the Church.

This is our faith. We believe and trust in one God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Hilariter

Richard Dirksen
(1921-2003)

The whole bright world rejoices now, Hilariter, hilariter; [joyfully]
The birds do sing on every bough, Alleluia.
Then shout beneath the racing skies, Hilariter, hilariter;
To Him who rose that we might rise, Alleluia.
And all you living things make praise, Hilariter, hilariter;
He guideth you on all your ways, Alleluia.
He, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost—Hilariter, hilariter;
Our God most high, our joy and boast, Alleluia.

(The congregation responds to each petition: “Hear our prayer.”)

OFFERTORY ANTHEM
It Is Well with My Soul

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, thou has taught me to say,
It is well, it is well, with my soul.

It is well, with my soul,
It is well, it is well, with my soul.

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed his own blood for my soul.

He liveth, the bliss of this glorious thought;
My sin, not in part, but the whole,
Is nailed to his cross and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

Lord, hasten the day when our faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll,
And the trumpet shall sound and the Lord shall descend;
Even so, it is well with my soul.

*Doxology
Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING
This morning we give thanks for the foreign language departments of the university.
We celebrate their role in educating students in the languages, literature, and culture of various ethnicities and the ways they prepare students to participate in contemporary political, social, and cultural life across national boundaries. The ushers bring forward a foreign language dictionary to the altar.

In Durham, we remember children and families of those who are incarcerated. The ushers bring a children’s bedtime story to the altar.

About Today’s Guest Preacher

We are pleased to welcome Candice Ryals Provey as our guest preacher. She is a 2004 graduate of Trinity College at Duke and a 2010 summa cum laude graduate from Duke Divinity School, where she received the award for Biblical Excellence and the Jameson Jones Preaching Award. As an undergraduate at Duke, she participated as a scholar in the Duke Chapel Pathways program. She currently directs the civic service initiative, Duke Alums Engage, as well as leadership opportunities and continuing education for Duke women graduates with the Duke Alumni Association. Candice serves as the minister to young adults for First Presbyterian Church, Durham, and she is on the board for the Resource Center for Women in Ministry in the South. She is a candidate for ministry in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).
Chapel Announcements

Easter Lilies—The lilies adorning the chancel this morning are provided by the Hanks Family Chapel Fund, established through the generosity of the late Miss Nancy Hanks, former Duke University Trustee, and her mother, the late Mrs. Virginia Hanks.

Today’s Offering—All of today’s cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support human service organizations in the greater Durham area. These nonprofit organizations are identified to receive funds by a panel of Congregation members, Friends of Duke Chapel, and students. The grant-making process not only benefits people in need but also seeks to introduce students to faithful stewardship and community development.

Dean Wells’ Exit Interview Live in Duke Chapel—On Tuesday night, April 17, at 7:30 p.m., Frank Stasio, host of NPR’s The State of Things, will interview Sam Wells live in Duke Chapel for the final Dean’s Dialogue. This “Exit Interview” will be an occasion for candid conversation, challenging questions, and perhaps surprising answers. A few questions will be taken from the audience near the end of the interview. Admission is free and all are welcome to attend.

News from Allan Friedman—Allan Friedman, Associate Conductor of the Chapel Choir, recently announced that this will be his last year at the Chapel. He will continue to live in the area and will be pursuing a variety of musical activities. He will be greatly missed, and we wish him well in all that he undertakes. Allan has enriched our community in many ways, both in his work with the Chapel Choir and in his conducting of the Vespers Ensemble and the Divinity School Choir. In honor of his eight years here, Allan will conduct the introit with the Chapel Choir next Sunday.
