In today’s Gospel passage, Jesus the Good Shepherd offers abundant life and eternal salvation to all those who believe in him. Those who love Jesus are his sheep who know his voice. Jesus is the living fulfillment of David’s Divine Shepherd in Psalm 23—the Lord who guards and protects us. In Acts, the early church celebrates the resurrection life of Jesus by living and worshiping together and by holding everything in common with one another.
The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation. The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

American Folk Hymn

Arr. Richard Walters

What wondrous love is this, O my soul.

To bear the dreadful curse for my soul.

When I was sinking down He lay aside His crown,
He lay aside His crown for my soul.

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES’ CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Antiphon (from Five Mystical Songs) Ralph Vaughan Williams
(1872–1958)

Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King.
The heavens are not too high, his praise may thither fly:
the earth is not too low, his praises there may grow.
The Church with Psalms must shout, no door can keep them out:
but above all, the heart must bear the longest part.

—George Herbert
Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

A child and youth member of the Congregation at Duke University Chapel bring forward offerings collected in the children and youth Sunday School classes.

LEARNING THE LITURGY OF THE CHAPEL

We are people gathered by Christ’s love, who scatter to be witnesses to that love in the world. Gathering and scattering; inhaling life to exhale life in the world; inspired by the Spirit to expire for Christ. Through the worship liturgy, we are reminded of how God works in creation and new creation, and we learn to see Jesus’ presence anew. Being enlightened by the light of the world in this way, we are sent out to continue worshiping, to see God’s presence and activity in the world, and to testify to God’s grace. To this end, the minister proclaims a good word of blessing and sending, and the people, led by the cross, depart singing a song of worship and praise.
The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

Christian Education Classes—Due to graduation weekend, there will be no Sunday morning Christian education classes on May 14. All classes will resume on May 21.

Lemonade on the Lawn—The Fellowship Committee invites all worshipers to gather under the magnolia for refreshments and conversation immediately following worship today.

Second Wednesday Lunch—All are welcome to attend a fellowship lunch to be held on Wednesday, May 10, at the Fairview Restaurant at the Washington Duke Inn. Please contact the Congregation office at congregation@duke.edu or 919-684-3917 by May 8 if you plan to attend. Members of the group will purchase their own lunch. Please join this fun, informal group to enjoy food and fellowship.

Saturday Service Project—Volunteers are needed on May 20 from 9:00 a.m. to noon to help the Achievement Academy of Durham pack and prepare for their summer move. The Achievement Academy teaches and supports young adults who have dropped out of school in order to reconnect them to the opportunities an education provides. The Academy uses a very low-cost facility of Durham Parks and Recreation, located at 2614 Crest St., Durham, but this necessitates moving to a nearby church each summer. To volunteer to help, please contact the Congregation office at 919-684-3917 or congregation@duke.edu.

Church Picnic—Please come for an afternoon of food and fellowship on Sunday, May 21, from 4:00 p.m.–6:00 p.m. The Congregation’s picnic will be held West Point on the Eno Park located at 5101 N. Roxboro Street, Durham. The Fellowship Committee will provide meat and veggie hot dogs, tableware, plates, beverages, and SnoCones. Attendees are asked to bring side dishes and desserts to share. All are welcome including friends, family, and guests.

Reception for Nancy Ferree-Clark—All are welcome to attend a reception for Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark, pastor of the Congregation from 1992-2010, on Tuesday, May 23, from 7:30–9:00 p.m., location TBD. Nancy will be briefly visiting the Durham area.

Grounded Book Groups—Book groups to read and discuss Grounded: Finding God in the World—A Spiritual Revolution by Diana Butler Bass will begin May 24 and May 25. The five-week book groups will meet on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. starting on May 24 and Thursday mornings at 10:30 a.m. starting May 25. Participants will purchase their own book. Please contact the Congregation office at 919-684-3917 or congregation@duke.edu if you plan to attend.
Duke Chapel is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. It is also a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it further acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.
