Service of Worship

Sixth Sunday of Easter
May 25, 2014
Eleven o'clock in the morning

✧ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ✧

In the scripture lessons for this morning, we first find Paul arguing astutely before the council of the Aeropagus in Athens. He argues that the God of all creation is not bound to altars made by human hands. The God of the universe is not an unknown God, but one who is known in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. The letter of 1 Peter focuses on the shape of a life with Christ and what it means to live into one's baptism. In the gospel lesson, Jesus tells his disciples that the time is coming when the world will no longer see him, though he promises his continued presence through the Holy Spirit, who will abide with them.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.
