Service of Worship

Third Sunday after Pentecost
June 5, 2016
Eleven o'clock in the morning

✻ Bridging Faith and Learning ✻

"Raising of the Son of the Widow of Nain," by James Tissot (1836–1902)

In this morning's Gospel passage, we see Jesus displaying an early revelation of his divine power. With his heart full of compassion for a widow who has just lost her only son, Jesus commands the dead man to be raised to life. This miracle echoes Elijah's prayer to raise the widow of Zarephath's son, and points to Jesus as the living fulfillment of messianic prophecy. It is this living Lord Jesus who dramatically encounters Paul on the road to Damascus, converting a zealous persecutor of the church into one of its most influential missionaries.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following Communion, a service of prayer for healing will be held in the same location. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation. The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.
When I feel afraid, think I've lost my way.
Still, you're there right beside me.
Nothing will I fear as long as you are near;
Please be with me to the end.
Fear not, I am with thee O be not dismayed,
For I am thy God I will still give thee aid.
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.
I will not forget your love for me and yet,

This is their third visit to perform at Duke Chapel.
