Unlike earthly kings, you, O Lord, are ever steadfast and faithful. You sent us your Son, Jesus the Christ, to rule over us, not as a tyrant, but as a gentle shepherd. Keep us united and strong in faith, that we may always know your presence in our lives, and, when you call us home, may we enter your heavenly kingdom where you live and reign for ever and ever. Amen.
At the close of today’s service, the Lord’s Supper will be celebrated in the Baldwin hallway to the right. Immediately following communion, a service of prayer for healing will be held in the same location. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent during the prelude. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the basement of Baldwin.

RESPONSE

*RESPONSE HYMN 534
Be Still, My Soul

*THE APOSTLES’ CREED
I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY’S FLOWERS—The flowers today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Barbara DeLapp Booth WC ’54 by her family.

TODAY’S OFFERING—All of today’s cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support the Chapel’s PathWays program, which offers students opportunities to discern God’s call through study, artistic expression, counsel, service, and Christian community.

TODAY’S GUEST PREACHER—This morning we welcome the Rev. Jonathan Wilson-Hartgrove as Peter J. Gomes Guest Preacher. Mr. Wilson-Hartgrove is a celebrated spiritual author and founder of School for Conversion, a Durham-based popular education program working to interrupt the new Jim Crow’s school-to-prison pipeline by “making surprising friendships possible.” (Learn more at www.schoolforconversion.org.) His books include Common Prayer: A Liturgy for Ordinary Radicals, Strangers at My Door, The Wisdom of Stability, and Free to Be Bound. Mr. Wilson-Hartgrove lives with his family and friends at the Rutba House, a hospitality house in Durham’s Walltown neighborhood.

TODAY’S GUEST LECTORS—Today’s lectors are participants in the Walltown Aspiring Youth program. The WAY is a team-based after-school mentoring program serving middle school aged girls and boys in Durham’s Walltown neighborhood. Since it began in 2010, the WAY has provided a uniquely comprehensive mentoring program to local youth who may not otherwise have healthy or productive afterschool activities. Using a holistic approach to personal development that includes physical, social, academic, and spiritual needs, the WAY seeks to meet basic needs, empower youth leaders, and connect students with asset-based community development.

NEW CHAPEL STAFF MEMBER—A new position has been created for the restoration year at Duke Chapel to fill the gap that the Rev. Meghan Benson leaves behind. Jack Adams will fill this interim position of Worship Coordinator. Mr Adams immigrated to North Carolina from London, England in January 2015, to be with his wife, Jess, who is a Duke Divinity student. After studying Theology at King’s College, London, he worked in various ministry roles at two London churches, as well as at the headquarters of the Church of England in Westminster. Mr. Adams has recently become a member of the Anglican Church in North America and he and his wife live in Canterbury House, an intentional Christian community, where he is exploring a call to ordained ministry. In his spare time, Mr. Adams loves to be outside; be it hiking, photographing wildlife, tending his vegetable garden, or playing with his mischievous dachshund-beagle, Smoky. He is slowly adjusting to the Carolina heat!
The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

Summer Christian Education—Weekly Christian education is offered on Sunday mornings from 9:45 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. in the Biddle Music Building. New participants are welcome any time.
- Wee Praise: For children ages 0–3 with parents/caregivers in 102 Biddle
- Children/Youth Choir: For children age 4 and up and youth in 101 Biddle
- Adult/Youth Class: Bible Study on the Acts of the Apostles in 104 Biddle

Annual Business Meeting—The Congregation’s annual business meeting will be held today at 1:00 p.m. in the Downunder Conference Room in the lower level of Gilbert-Addoms residence hall.

Baseball with Vets—The Mission Committee and Volunteers of America are sponsoring the annual trip to the Durham Bulls on Saturday, July 11, at 6:35 p.m. for veterans living at Maple Court in Durham. Please contact James Osborn at 919-949-0439 to reserve your $10 ticket by Thursday, June 11. Donations to cover the cost of tickets and concessions for the vets may be made out to the Congregation at Duke Chapel with “Missions Ballgame” written in the memo.

Saturday Service Project—Volunteers are needed on Saturday, June 13, from 10:00 a.m. to noon to assist the Religious Coalition for a Nonviolent Durham in moving, organizing, and cleaning the space they use in Shepherd’s House UMC, 107 N Driver St., Durham. Please enter the building through the back door near the playground. Please email Brad Troxell at brad.troxell@duke.edu with questions or to volunteer.

Reception for The Rev. Meghan Benson—All are invited to a farewell reception for Meghan Benson next Sunday, immediately following worship. If you wish, please bring a card, poem, or prayer to place in a basket as an expression of appreciation and best wishes.

Back Pew Collection—Believers United for Progress is a nonprofit agency that provides 350–500 nourishing meals daily to children ages 1-18 in the low income areas of Durham during the summer months. If you would like to join in providing meals to local children, bring donations of individual fruit cups to the benches in the front lobby of Baldwin Auditorium before the service on Sundays, June 14 and June 21. No Jello products, please. Monetary donations are also welcome, and may be placed in the offering. Please make checks out to the Congregation at Duke Chapel with “Believers United for Progress” written in the memo.

Volunteers and Lasagnas Needed—Urban Ministries Shelter dinner volunteers are needed for Wednesday, June 24 (6:15 p.m. arrival with 2 party size lasagnas). For details and to volunteer, please contact Cricket Scovil (scovilj@aol.com or 919-286-0556). Early notice is appreciated.
1. If thou but suffer God to guide thee, and hope in God through all thy ways, God will give strength, what-e'er be-tide thee,
2. On-ly be still, and wait God's lei-sure in cheer-ful hope, with heart con-tent to take what-e'er thy Mak'er's plea-sure faith-ful-ly, and trust God's word; though un-de-serv-ing,
3. Sing, pray, and keep God's ways un-swerv-ing; so do thine own part and bear thee through the e-vil days. Who trusts in God's un-and all-dis-cern-ing love hath sent; we know our in-most thou yet shalt find it true for thee. God nev-er yet for-chang-ing love builds on the rock that naught can move.

wants are known, for we are called to be God's own.
sook at need the soul that trust-ed God in-deed.
1. Be still, my soul: the Lord is on your side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
leave to your God to order and provide;
in every change God faithful will remain.

2. Be still, my soul: your God will undertake to guide the future, as in ages past.
  Your hope, your confidence let nothing shake;
  all now mysterious shall be bright at last.

3. Be still, my soul: the hour is hastening on when we shall be forever with the Lord,
when disappointment, grief, and fear are gone,
sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored.

STRENGTH IN TRIBULATION

Be still, my soul: your best, your heavenly friend
Be still, my soul: the waves and winds still know
Be still, my soul: when change and tears are past,

through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.
the Christ who ruled them while he dwelt below.
all safe and blessed we shall meet at last.
O God Beyond All Praising

1. O God beyond all praising, we worship you today, bring, that we who know your favor may songs cannot repay; for we can only serve you as our King; and whether our to wonder at every gift you send, at morrows be filled with good or ill, we'll blessings without number and mercies without triumph through our sorrows and rise to bless you end: We lift our hearts before you and still: To marvel at your beauty and wait upon your Word, we honor and a glory in your ways, and make a joyful dore you, our great and mighty Lord.

The PathWays Summer Internship is designed for Duke undergraduates interested in exploring their callings as Christians while living in community in the Isaiah House (an intentional Christian community focused on hospitality in East Durham) and through employment in Durham nonprofit, government, faith-based, and ministry settings. The internship lasts eight weeks (June-July) and includes daily morning prayer, weekly discernment dinners, theological writing and reflection, service opportunities, and a mid-summer retreat.

Xiating Chen, PathWays Chapel Scholar, Pratt ‘17
Xiating is a rising junior from Guangzhou, China. Besides pursuing a major in environmental engineering, she is involved with the Presbyterian Campus Ministry and various musical groups on campus, including Duke Chorale and Hoof’n’Horn. This summer, Ting is looking forward to working with Kidznotes, a local non-profit organization that is devoted to social change through music education. She is very grateful for this opportunity to build further relationship with different communities in Durham and to hear God’s calling.

Joshua Kamrass, PathWays Chapel Scholar, Trinity ‘16
Josh is from Denver, CO. He is studying Physics and Philosophy with a minor in Mathematics. He is a leader within Duke Asian InterVarsity Christian Fellowship and a Chapel Scholar. This summer he is looking forward to interning with Mosaic Church, a local church focused on being a multi-ethnic community that is a witness to God’s love for all people throughout Durham and the world.
DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. It is also a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it further acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

FOR WORSHIPERS AND VISITORS

† Prayer requests may be emailed to chapel-prayers@duke.edu.

† Tours of Duke Chapel are suspended until the nave re-opens.

† Hearing assistance units are available in the lobby of Baldwin Auditorium. See the attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print bulletins for the worship service.

FOR FAMILIES AND CHILDREN

† Children 4 and younger are invited to the nursery located in the Baldwin basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Capacity is limited. Parents are welcome to feed or change infants; pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship.

† Children’s bulletins are available from the ushers, and Activity Bags are available in the entryway of Baldwin for children 5 or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. Please email congregation@duke.edu or call 919-684-3917 for information.
