Service of Holy Communion

Fourth Sunday after Pentecost
June 12, 2016
Eleven o'clock in the morning

✻ Bridging Faith and Learning ✻

"Jesus Speaks About Forgiveness," by the Jesus MAFA Community, Cameroon

This morning we read of a woman who approaches Jesus with humble intimacy, seeking forgiveness for her sins. Despite being expected to reject her as a sinner and as a woman, Jesus instead forgives her, and commends her loving example. It is this overflow of grace that Paul writes of when he says it is no longer he who lives, but Christ who lives in him. Tragically, the wicked example of King Ahab and Queen Jezebel teaches us of what happens when we cling to and abuse earthly power. However, through faith in Jesus our old lives and shame are put to death, and we are released to live full of the love and joy of Christ.

The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

On this Communion Sunday, families with children are invited to sit up front, so they can better observe The Great Thanksgiving. The importance of welcoming children is exemplified in Matthew 18:2-5 by Jesus' answer to the disciples as they wondered who was the greatest in the kingdom of heaven: 'He called a child, whom he put among them, and said, 'Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever becomes humble like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me.'" Please help us welcome the children in our midst by letting them know we are glad to see them in worship. By doing so, we are also welcoming Jesus.

The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 139 (found in the hymnals located in the pew racks)

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

LOBE DEN HERREN

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God's peace.)

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)

Saving God, hold us fast to your promises of peace and send your Spirit to illuminate your holy word; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR THE WEEK

This morning we give thanks for the employees of Duke Dining Services and the making and sharing of food as part of the campus's common life.

In Durham, we lift up those who have crossed national and international borders in search of new life, and we remember those committed to journeying with these people in this city.

JUNE 26—The Rev. Bruce Puckett, Director of Worship and Community Ministry, Duke Chapel.

JULY 3—The Rev. Dr. Luke A. Powery, Dean of Duke Chapel.

FOR WORSHIPERS AND VISITORS

† Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.

† For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today's docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.

† Hearing assistance units are available at the sound desk at the back left of the Chapel. For optimal hearing assistance, please sit in the pews near the third columns of the Chapel nave, where the speakers are located.

FOR FAMILIES AND CHILDREN

† Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet, or change infants are also welcome.

† Worship Bags for ages 0–5, and Children's Worship Bulletins™ for ages 3–6 and 7–12, are available at the rear of the Chapel. Please return bags and clipboards at the end of the service.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. Please email congregation@duke.edu or call 919-684-3917 for information.

CHANGES TO PARKING AT DUKE CHAPEL

The Bryan Center Parking Garage (PGIV) will begin a new parking system on Monday, June 13. Sunday morning parking will continue to be free until 1 p.m. but will require each driver to take a ticket upon entry to the garage and to authenticate it at a pay station available on each floor prior to exiting the garage.

Please plan to arrive early on upcoming Sundays as our community becomes acquainted with the new system. For those who worship regularly at the Chapel, free code cards will be available to allow Sunday morning entry and exit. Cards are available at the Chapel attendant's desk in the nave near the main entrance of the Chapel.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—Flowers for today's worship service are given to the glory of God for the Chapel and Divinity School of Duke University by the Barefoot family.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support the Chapel's PathWays program, which offers students opportunities to discern God's call through study, artistic expression, counsel, service, and Christian community.

LEMONADE ON THE LAWN—Please stay for a time of fellowship and refreshment on the Chapel lawn following worship.

CONCERT TODAY—The Vocal Arts Ensemble of Durham performs a celebratory concert in the Chapel this afternoon at 5 p.m. Entitled "Alleluia! Sing a New Song," the concert includes Eric Whitacre's new Alleluia and music by Dan Forrest, Randall Thompson, Stephen Paulus, and others. Tickets will be available at the door, or from Duke Box Office, 919-684-4444 or tickets.duke.edu. The 31-voice choir is conducted by Rodney Wynkoop.

TODAY'S GUEST MUSICIAN—The Chapel is pleased to welcome back Ms. Anita Burroughs-Price, who is principal harpist with the North Carolina Symphony. She is a graduate of Furman University with a double major in French and Harp Performance, and her recitals often include harps from Ireland, Africa, Paraguay, and a rare Erard single-action harp from England.

NEW ALBUM—Chapel Organist Christopher Jacobson has released a new album "The Aeolian Organ at Duke University Chapel," which features the Chapel's Kathleen Upton Byrns McClendon Organ. The recording, published by the Dutch classical music label Pentatone, includes symphonic compositions transcribed for organ, such as Jean Sibelius' "Finlandia," as well as popular tunes including "Londonderry Air" from "O Danny Boy."

ARCHIVES EXHIBIT—This is the last week to see an exhibit focusing on the history and legacy of Duke University Chapel on display in the Chappell Family Gallery near the entrance of Perkins Library. The exhibit will be displayed through June 19. Please contact Sara Clark at (919) 684-8150 or sara.clark@duke.edu for more information.

THE CONGREGATION AT DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL
919-684-3917 • www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

SUMMER CLASSES—Three Sunday morning classes are available from 9:45 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. Classes are held in the lowest level of Duke Divinity School, Westbrook Building. All are welcome to participate:
Wee Praise: For ages 0–3 with parents or caregivers in 0011 Westbrook.
Lift Ev’ry Voice: For ages 4 through 5th grade in 0014 Westbrook.
Bible Study on the Gospel of John: For youth and adults in 0013 Westbrook.

YOUTH SERVICE TRIP—Earlier this morning, eight youth and two adults left for a week of service, education, fellowship and worship in the mountains of North Carolina. They will be with the Hinton Center. Please include this group in your prayers.

BACK PEW COLLECTION—Today and next Sunday, the Mission Committee invites donations for local bus passes. The passes will be distributed by the Religious Coalition for a Nonviolent Durham to its Faith Team partners, formerly incarcerated people re-entering the work force. A monthly bus pass costs $36. Please deposit your donation in the designated box on the back pew or place it in the offering plate. If donating by check, please make it payable to the Congregation at Duke Chapel, and add “Bus passes for local missions” on the memo line.

SATURDAY SERVICE PROJECT—Volunteers are needed on Saturday, June 18 from 9:00 a.m.–noon to sort donated clothing in the Urban Ministries Clothing Closet. Urban Ministries of Durham seeks to end homelessness and fight poverty in Durham through offering food, shelter, and a future to local neighbors in need. Interested volunteers can contact the Congregation office (congregation@duke.edu) or call at 919-684-3917.

ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING—The Congregation’s Annual Business Meeting will be held on Sunday, June 19, at 1:00 p.m. in Goodson Chapel, located in the Divinity School. A catered lunch will be available in the Divinity School Café prior to the meeting for a cost of $10 per adult. Please inform the Congregation office at 919-684-3917 if you plan to attend.

BALLGAME WITH VETS—Local Missions, along with the Volunteers of America, are sponsoring a trip to the Durham Bulls for the veterans who live at Maple Court in Durham on Saturday, July 9th, at 6:35 p.m. July 9, which is military appreciation day at the ballpark, will feature fireworks after the game. Tickets are $12 each. Please email, text, or call your reservation to James Osborn at dubldvman@earthlink.net or 919-949-0439 by Friday, June 17th. If you are unable to attend but would like to treat a Veteran, please consider donating to the cost of tickets and concession stand food and beverages. Checks can be made payable to The Congregation at Duke Chapel with “local missions ballgame” written in the memo line. Please note: This is an alcohol-free event.

Standing with the Fellows are representatives from the Fellows' internship sites. This is the eleventh year the PathWays House has been home to students living in the West End neighborhood of Durham. Those living in the house have committed to the PathWays Household Covenant of daily prayer, weekly meals, fellowship, service, and friendship in Durham.

Julia Bellantoni, Duke 2016

Julia is from Baltimore, MD and graduated in May with a degree in Biology. As an undergraduate, she was involved in the Duke Catholic Center, Momentum Dance Company, and the Delta Gamma Fraternity. She is excited to be working with Duke Connected Care this year and further exploring her interest in geriatric medicine as she applies to medical school. Julia is excited to see how the PathWays community will grow in faith and service this year.

Amber Black, Duke 2016

Amber was born in the Bronx, New York, and grew up in Lawrenceville, Georgia and Olmsted Falls, Ohio. She graduated in May with a degree in English and minors in Spanish and Political Science. During her undergraduate career, Amber was involved with United in Praise Gospel Choir and the Duke Catholic Center. This year, she is most looking forward to serving with World Relief Durham, a refugee resettlement agency with a mission to empower the local church to serve the most vulnerable. In the future, Amber hopes to obtain a law degree and pursue a career combining work in human rights and child advocacy. She is especially thankful for the opportunity to discern spiritual and vocational direction as she seeks God throughout this season.

Chrislyn Choo, Duke 2016

Chrislyn hails from Princeton, NJ, and Penang, Malaysia. With a BS in Neuroscience and Certificate in the Arts of the Moving Image, she enjoys applying insights from neuroscience and film to communication in business, education, and personal development. Chrislyn loves a good story and treasures every narrative as an invitation to know and be known. She came to this realization through a documentary DukeEngage program in Medellín, Colombia, and a video production internship with 2100 Productions (InterVarsity Christian Fellowship/USA). She is also grateful to her communities in Something Borrowed Something Blue (Duke's Christian a cappella group) and the Brownstone Selective Living Group. Through PathWays, Chrislyn is thrilled to continue living in community and growing as a Storycrafting Apprentice with StoryDriven, a documentary-style marketing team.

Marleen Jones-Pool, Duke 2016

Marleen was born on the beautiful island of Puerto Rico and grew up in New Bedford, MA. She recently graduated with a BS in Psychology and minors in Chemistry and Biology. While at Duke, she was involved with United in Praise gospel choir and was a member of Adventist Christian Fellowship.

During her time as a Fellow, she looks forward to working with El Futuro, a non-profit in downtown Durham that provides mental health services to Latinos in the community.

Chris Lee, Duke 2014

Chris graduated from Duke with a double major in English Literature and History and a minor in Cultural Anthropology. He grew up in Queens, NY, and Schaumburg, IL, before spending the last eight years in NC. After working/studying abroad in five different continents during college, he is happy to settle into Durham as a resident of the city that has given him so much. He will spend the year working at StepUp Durham, as well as rediscovering his love for old hobbies such as drawing, running, and learning languages. He is grateful to Pathways for giving him the time and space to reflect upon God's voice before he applies to law school.

PATHWAYS SUMMER INTERNS

The PathWAYS Summer Internship is designed for Duke undergraduates interested in exploring their calling as Christians while living in community in the Isaiah House, an intentional Christian community focused on hospitality in East Durham, and through employment in Durham nonprofit, government, faith-based, and ministry settings. The internship lasts eight weeks (June-July) and includes daily morning prayer, weekly discernment dinners, theological writing and reflection, service opportunities, and a mid-summer retreat.

Addie Cady, Trinity 2017

Addie is a rising senior from Westford, Massachusetts. She is a pre-medical student with a biology major and chemistry minor. She is an active member of Duke's CRU ministry and the Duke alpine ski and sailing teams. This summer she is looking forward to working with Duke Hospice and Homecare, where she will visit patients as well as help to organize the Durham chapter of the "Being Mortal Project," a nationwide public awareness campaign on the importance of talking about end-of-life preferences and goals with loved ones and medical professionals.

Jihwan Hwang, Trinity 2018

Jihwan Hwang is a rising junior from South Korea majoring in chemistry with a concentration in pharmacology. He is interested in discovering new connections between science and human health. This summer, he is excited to intern with Duke Community Health, where he will explore and help inform the public about various community health resources.

Jonathan Osei, Trinity 2018

Jonathan was born in Sacramento, CA and raised in the small city of Casa Grande, AZ. He is currently a rising junior working toward a degree in Public Policy, an Economics minor, and a Certificate in Markets and Management. This summer, he is ecstatic to be working with Community Empowerment Fund (CEF), a student powered nonprofit that works to encourage financial independence for financially disadvantaged members of the Durham and Chapel Hill communities through relationship-based support, financial coaching and financial literacy training.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. It is also a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it further acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.
