Service of Worship

Third Sunday after Pentecost
June 14, 2015

Baldwin Auditorium
Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Bridging Faith and Learning ~

---

"Butterfly Flower," by Elina Elena

Sometimes the workings of God remain unseen before they bear fruit—similar to a seed growing and taking root in the soil. In the Old Testament reading, Samuel, discerning that God would use David to sow the seed for Israel's future, trusts God's choice of the young shepherd David as king. In his second letter to the Corinthian church, Paul also emphasizes that discipleship demands walking by faith, not by sight. In Mark, Jesus uses the image of seeds to describe the mysterious and hidden nature of God's kingdom.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in Baldwin Auditorium. Immediately following Communion, a service of prayer for healing will be held in the same location. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent during the prelude. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the basement of Baldwin.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers today are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach Family Trust.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for the Chapel Development Fund. The Chapel's current focus is to upgrade the Chapel cameras and video capabilities to digital and high definition in order to better serve the thousands of worshippers locally, in Duke Hospital, and around the globe who tune in weekly.

NEW CHAPEL STAFF MEMBER—A new position has been created for the restoration year at Duke Chapel to fill the gap that the Rev. Meghan Benson leaves behind. Jack Adams will fill this interim position of Worship Coordinator. Mr. Adams immigrated to North Carolina from London, England in January 2015, to be with his wife, Jess, who is a Duke Divinity student. After studying Theology at King's College, London, he worked in various ministry roles at two London churches, as well as at the headquarters of the Church of England in Westminster. Mr. Adams has recently become a member of the Anglican Church in North America. He and his wife live in Canterbury House, an intentional Christian community, where he is exploring a call to ordained ministry. In his spare time, Mr. Adams loves to be outside; be it hiking, photographing wildlife, tending his vegetable garden, or playing with his mischievous dachshund-beagle, Smoky. He is slowly adjusting to the Carolina heat!
