

Service of Worship

Trinity Sunday
June 15, 2014
Eleven o'clock in the morning

≈ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ≪

Icon of the Trinity, by Andrei Rublev, c. 1410.

Trinity Sunday is the first of the many Sundays of ordinary time that follow Pentecost and eventually lead up to Advent. Today we celebrate the doctrine of the Holy Trinity—God as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We celebrate the holiness of the triune God and seek to know how that holiness should take shape among the people of God.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

*Processional Hymn 64 Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty

NICAEA

*Prayer of Confession and Words of Assurance (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God's peace.)

PROCLAMATION

Prayer for Illumination (in unison)

Holy God, faithful and unchanging: enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth, and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love, that we may truly worship you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST LESSON—Genesis 1:1-2:4a (OT pages 1-2 in the pew Bible)

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

*Gradual Hymn 108 (stanza 1)

God Hath Spoken by the Prophets
(All turn and face the Gospel Procession.)

*Gospel Lesson—Matthew 28:16-20 (NT page 32)

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

*Gradual Hymn 108 (stanzas 2-3)

RESPONSE

COMMISSIONING OF PATHWAYS SUMMER INTERNS AND FELLOWS

CALL TO PRAYER

Minister: The Lord be with you. People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Prayers of the People

(The congregation responds to each petition: "Hear our prayer.")

This morning we give thanks for the summer camps and other summer programs of the University. We celebrate how they encourage and train young people in athletic and intellectual pursuits.

In Durham we remember those who are homeless and the organizations that work to offer safe shelter and opportunities for home ownership.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing American Folk Hymn

American Folk Hymn arr. Mack Wilberg (b. 1955)

Come, thou Fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace; Streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise. Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above. Praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it, mount of thy redeeming love.

Here I raise mine Ebenezer; hither by thy help I'm come; And I hope, by thy good pleasure, safely to arrive at home. Jesus sought me when a stranger, wandering from the fold of God; He, to rescue me from danger, interposed his precious blood.

O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be! Let thy goodness, like a fetter, bind my wandering heart to thee. Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love; Here's my heart, O take and seal it, seal it for thy courts above.

*Doxology

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia! Praise God above, ye heavenly host, Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

*The Great Thanksgiving (Musical Setting A, found on page 17 in the hymnal)

*The Lord's Prayer (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

UNION SEMINARY

Communion Anthem Pater Noster

Alejandro D. Consolacion II (b. 1980)

Pater noster, qui es in caelis, sanctificetur nomen tuum;
Adveniat regnum tuum
Fiat voluntas tua sicut in caelo et in terra.
Panem nostrum quotidianum da nobis hodie,
Et dimitte nobis debita nostra, sicut et nos dimittimus debitoribus nostris. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem: sed libera nos a malo. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed by thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

*Prayer After Communion

SENDING FORTH

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers today are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach Family Trust.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for the Chapel Development Fund. The Chapel's current focus is to upgrade the Chapel cameras and video capabilities to digital and high definition in order to better serve the thousands of worshippers locally, in Duke Hospital, and around the globe who tune in weekly.

Today's Guest Choir—The Lake Junaluska Singers, directed by Dr. Melodie Galloway, a 14-voice professional ensemble, serves as the Ambassador choir for the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church and of the Lake Junaluska Conference and Retreat Center. The group began in 1954 and has performed nationally and internationally for conferences, dignitaries, and invited concerts. The choir's music ranges from classical choral and contemporary works to gospel, folk, and musical theatre styles.

VISITING THE CHAPEL—The Chapel often has weddings booked on Saturdays and Sunday afternoons, especially during the summer months. If a wedding is taking place, visitors will not be permitted inside. Before visiting on a weekend, please call 919-681-9488 to learn when the Chapel will be open to the public.

DUKE CHAPEL EVENT EMAIL LIST—If you would like to receive emails about upcoming events sponsored by Duke Chapel, such as concerts, dialogues, special worship services, and more, please visit www.chapel.duke.edu/contact and sign up via the link in the left-hand box.

SERMONS AVAILABLE—Copies of today's sermon are available in the communication stands at either side of the narthex, just inside the front doors of the Chapel. A downloadable PDF, podcast, and webcast of sermons each week are available on our website, www.chapel.duke.edu.

QUESTIONS PEOPLE OFTEN ASK - WHY DO WE PROCESS INTO THE SANCTUARY?

Throughout the Bible there is a tension between God's people as a settled people, enjoying land, king, and temple, and God's people as a pilgrim nation, experiencing exodus, wilderness, and exile. Jesus comes to a people who are in internal exile under the Romans; he encourages them to lay aside everything and to follow him. Yet, we often forget we are a pilgrim people. And so in every act of worship we have a procession, in order to embody what it means to live the life of faith as a journey. Two significant forms of companionship are to share a meal and to share a journey. Worship begins with one and ends with the other. Just as the Road to Emmaus was, in Luke, the first encounter with the risen Christ, so today breaking bread together helps us identify the God we meet on the journey.

THE CONGREGATION AT DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

919-684-3917 • www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

SUMMER SUNDAY EDUCATION—Weekly Christian education for all ages is available throughout the summer months.

- Infants through children age 3, and their parents or caregivers, will meet weekly for Wee Praise in Westbrook Room 0012
- Children and Youth will sing together forming a summer choir in Westbrook Room 0014.
- Adults will reflect on current events in light of scripture using the Wired Word curriculum, meeting in Westbrook Room 0011.

Back Pew Collection—Believers United for Progress is a nonprofit agency that provides 350-500 nourishing meals daily to children ages 1-18 in the low-income areas of Durham during the summer months. To assist in this need, Local Missions is collecting individual portion sizes of fruit cups on the Sundays of June 15 and June 22. Donations of small fruit cups only (no jello products, please) can be left on the back pew of the Chapel today and Sunday, June 22. Monetary donations are also welcome. Please write checks out to the Congregation at Duke Chapel with Believers United for Progress in the notation.

Volunteers Needed—During the week of June 22, the Congregation is partnering with Antioch Baptist Church to host three young families through Interfaith Hospitality Network (IHN). On Sunday, June 22, and Thursday, June 26, volunteers are needed to contribute meals for the families. Please contact Marilyn Christian, IHN Coordinator, at mchristian2@nc.rr.com or call 919-361-1974 to volunteer or for more information.

Urban Ministries Dinners—Volunteers are needed to assist with the next two shelter dinners which are on Wednesday, June 25, and Sunday, July 13. Please call Ned Arnett at 919-489-4133 or email edward.arnett@duke.edu or email Cricket Scovil at scovilj@aol.com to contribute two cooked party-size Stouffers' lasagnas with meat sauce and/or to help serve the meal. Volunteers meet at the Urban Ministries kitchen, 412 Liberty St. in Durham, at 6:30 p.m. for the Wednesday dinner, and at 5:45 p.m. for the Sunday dinner.

Guests From China on June 29—Steve and Mary Porter, who are facilitating five separate translation projects in China, will offer a presentation on their work on Sunday, June 29, at 9:45 a.m. in Room 0011 of the Westbrook Building. Their work involves aiding translators and interfacing with officials to gain access to remote areas. Following worship, conversation with the Porters will continue at a potluck lunch in the Chapel kitchen. For details about the lunch, please email Cricket Scovil at scovilj@aol.com.

PATHWAYS FELLOWS 2014-2015

www.chapel.duke.edu/pathways

Standing with the Fellows are representatives from the Fellows' internship sites. This is the ninth year the PathWays House has been home to students living in the West End neighborhood of Durham. Those living in the house have committed to the PathWays Household Covenant of daily prayer, weekly meals, fellowship, service, and friendship in Durham.

Debbie Chi, Duke 2014

Debbie is a recent Duke grad with a degree in Mechanical Engineering and an Aerospace Engineering Certificate. She was born in Baton Rouge although she spent most of her life living in Bethlehem, PA. During her time at Duke, Debbie was involved with InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, the Iota Mu Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., and various volunteer work in and around Durham. Her experiences as a Chapel Scholar piqued her desire to live in intentional Christian community, which drew her to the PathWays Fellows Program. After internship experiences at both Raytheon and Boeing, Debbie realized that she was drawn to medicine and healthcare instead. She will continue discerning her vocation and recent career change by working at Lincoln Community Health Center this year.

Jocelyn Streid, Duke 2013

Jocelyn grew up in Saint Louis, MO, and Salt Lake City, UT. She graduated with a degree in English in May of 2013, and is currently applying to medical school. Jocelyn has spent this past year conducting pediatric palliative care research with a children's cancer center in Malaysia. She is delighted to be back in Durham, where she will be working with the Resource Center for Women and Ministry in the South, as well as serving as a chaplain-in-training at the Durham VA Medical Center.

Hannah Ward, Duke 2014

Hannah graduated in May from Duke University as a pre-med student with a BA in Religious Studies and a minor in Psychology. She is from the beautiful mountains of Asheville, NC, and enjoys hiking, sightseeing, and cultural events. This year she will be working with Kim Nichols at Duke Community Health where her responsibilities will be varied. She is interested in further understanding how communities teach and encourage good health practices in underserved populations.

Nicole White, Duke 2014

Nicole grew up in Dublin, OH. She graduated with a major in Psychology, minor in Sociology, and certificate in Global Health. She hopes to work as a psychologist in the field of global mental health in developing nations. As an undergraduate, Nicole was a member of Duke's IMPACT ministry. Nicole will spend her Fellowship year working with Durham Center Access, a walkin mental health crisis facility. Nicole is grateful for this opportunity to tune her ear to hear God's call for her life.

Rachel White, Duke 2014

Rachel was born and raised in the quaint agricultural town of Blanchard, MI. She graduated this May with a degree in International Comparative Studies (focus: South Asia) and a minor in Religious Studies. This year, she is excited to be working with REAL Durham, a nonprofit centered in East Durham that works to create circles of support with folks in material poverty interested in walking out of it. In her free time, she enjoys reading a good fantasy/fiction novel, baking, and making art. She is also a self-proclaimed polyglot, having studied four languages while at Duke.

PATHWAYS SUMMER INTERNS

The PathWays Summer Internship is designed for Duke undergraduates interested in exploring their calling as Christians while living in community in the Isaiah House, an intentional Christian community focused on hospitality in East Durham, and through employment in Durham nonprofit, government, faith-based, and ministry settings. The internship lasts eight weeks (June-July) and includes daily morning prayer, weekly discernment dinners, theological writing and reflection, service opportunities, and a mid-summer retreat.

Tina Chen, PathWays Chapel Scholar, Trinity 2017

Tina is from Ellicott City, MD. She is intending to major in computer science and minor in chemistry. This summer she is looking forward to working with Housing for New Hope, helping integrate technology with community service.

Lauren Haley, Trinity 2016

Lauren is from Fort Worth, Texas. She is a member of the Duke Catholic Center and is studying Psychology with potential minors in Education, Dance, and Child Policy Research. This summer she is looking forward to working with Open Table Ministry, which works to improve the quality of life for the homeless population by building relationships, meeting practical needs, and connecting with existing resources.

Maryann Verghese, PathWays Chapel Scholar, Trinity 2015

Maryann is from Rancho Santa Margarita, California. She is a pre-law student with a Psychology major and certificate in Politics, Philosophy, and Economics. She is a Chapel Scholar and active member of Duke Presbyterian Campus Ministry. This summer she is looking forward to interning with JusticeMatters, a nonprofit organization that provides legal services to low-income members of the Durham community, specializing in assisting immigrants and survivors of human trafficking.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

www.chapel.duke.edu • Box 90974, Durham, NC 27708 • 919-684-2572

FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS

- † Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.
- † For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today's docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.
- † Hearing assist units and a Braille hymnal are available at the attendant's desk at the entry way of the Chapel. See the Chapel attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print Bibles or hymnals for the worship service this morning.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN

- † Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet, or change infants are also welcome.
- † Activity Bags are available at the rear of the Chapel for children 5 or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service. Children's bulletins are available from the ushers.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you would like to receive the weekly eNews from the Congregation or have any questions, please email congregation@duke.edu or call 919-684-3917.
