“Jesus, the Gerasene, and the Unclean Spirits,” by Luke the Cypriot, ca. 1594

In this morning’s Gospel passage, we see Jesus commanding his full authority over the powers of evil. A demon-possessed man has been viciously tormented and driven from his community, but Jesus orders the demons to release him. The man is healed, and Jesus gives him the dignity of clothing and conversation. This miracle terrifies the crowd, who ask Jesus to leave. As Paul writes to the Galatians, we are all invited to clothe ourselves with Christ, who is unafraid to reach out and love us, whoever we are.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following Communion, a service of prayer for healing will be held in the same location. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation. The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
