The story of the people of Israel is characterized by God revealing himself in the unexpected. One of the most famous instances of this in the biblical narrative is the young shepherd boy David and his surprise triumph over the mighty giant Goliath. In Mark’s gospel, Jesus stills the chaotic waters during a windstorm, revealing his power over creation and calming his terrified disciples. Christian faith is full of the unexpected as our Father often uses the most unlikely of people and unpromising of situations to build our faith in him.
At the close of today’s service, the Lord’s Supper will be celebrated in Baldwin Auditorium. Immediately following Communion, a service of prayer for healing will be held in the same location. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent during the prelude. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the basement of Baldwin.

It Is Well with My Soul

*The Apostles’ Creed
I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Call to Prayer

People: And also with you.
Minister: Let us pray.

Offertory Anthem
Jesus, Lover of My Soul
Alan Hovhaness (1911-2000)
Jesus, lover of my soul, let me to thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll, while the tempest still is high;
Hide me, O my Savior, hide, till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide, O receive my soul at last!

Other refuge have I none; hangs my helpless soul on thee;
Leave, ah! leave me not alone, still support and comfort me.
All my trust on thee is stayed, all my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenseless head with the shadow of thy wing.

—Charles Wesley

Doxology
Lasst uns erfreuen
Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Thanksgiving
Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord’s Prayer
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Sending Forth

Today’s Guest Preacher—After 16 years as the United Methodist Chaplain for Duke University and the Executive Director of the Duke Wesley Fellowship, Jennifer Copeland will now become the Executive Director of the North Carolina Council of Churches. In her years at Duke, she has led Wesley to regional and national prominence and has been named the National Campus Minister of the Year. She holds multiple degrees from Duke: BA, MDiv, and PhD, as well as a Graduate Certificate in Women’s Studies. The Rev. Dr. Copeland recently published, Feminine Registers: The Importance of Women’s Voices for Christian Preaching. She will continue to teach occasionally for Duke University.

BACK PEW COLLECTION—Believers United for Progress is a nonprofit agency that provides 350–500 nourishing meals daily to children ages 1-18 in the low income areas of Durham during the summer months. To join in providing meals for local children, donations of individual fruit cups (as previously announced) may be placed on the benches in the front lobby of Baldwin Auditorium today. Monetary donations are also welcome, and may be placed in the offering. Please make checks out to the Congregation at Duke Chapel with “Believers United for Progress” written in the memo.

PRAYER MINISTRY—If you would like others to join you in prayer for a specific individual or concern, please email your request to chapel-prayers@duke.edu or call the Congregation office. All prayer requests will be handled respectfully and confidentially.

SUPPORTING EACH OTHER—The gift of a meal or a ride can be a significant encouragement to those who are ill or recuperating at home. If you would enjoy giving the gift of food or transportation and would like to be notified when there is a need in the Congregation, please inform the Congregation office at congregation@duke.edu or 919-684-3917.
1. By gracious powers so wonderfully sheltered, and confidently waiting, come what may,
   we know that God is with us night and morning,
   and never fails to greet us each new day.

2. Yet is this heart by its old foe tormented,
   still evil days bring burdens hard to bear;
   O give our frightened souls the sure salvation,
   for which, O Lord, you taught us to prepare.

3. And when this cup you give is filled to brimming with bitter sorrow, hard to understand,
   we take it thankfully and without trembling,
   out of so good and so beloved a hand.

4. Yet when again in this same world you give us
   the joy we had, the brightness of your sun, we shall remember all the days we lived through,
   and our whole life shall then be yours alone.

1. When peace, like a river, attendeth my way, when sorrows like sea billows roll; whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say, It is well, it is well with my soul.

2. Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
My sin, not in part but the whole, is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more, praise the Lord, praise the sound, and the Lord shall descend, even so, it is well with my soul.

3. My sin, oh, the bliss of this glorious thought!
My sin, not in part but the whole, is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more, praise the Lord, praise the sound, and the Lord shall descend, even so, it is well with my soul.

4. And, Lord, haste the day when my faith shall be sight,
My sin, not in part but the whole, is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more, praise the Lord, praise the sound, and the Lord shall descend, even so, it is well with my soul.

Give to the Winds Thy Fears

1. Give to the winds thy fears; hope and be undismayed.
2. Through waves and clouds and storms, God gently clears thy way;
3. Leave to God's sovereign sway to choose and to command;
4. Let us in life, in death, thy steadfast truth declare,

God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears, God shall lift up thy head.
wait thou God's time; so shall this night soon end in joyous day.
so shalt thou, wondering, own that way, how wise, how strong this hand.
and publish with our latest breath thy love and guardian care.
