

Duke UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Fifth Sunday after Pentecost
June 23, 2013
Eleven o'clock in the morning

œ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God œ

In the lesson from First Kings, Elijah spends 40 days wandering in the desert and has a dramatic encounter with thunder, lighting, and earthquake atop Mt. Horeb (Mt. Sinai). The story seems to suggest that God shows up in the silence, but a closer look reveals this silence fails to provide Elijah the comfort of the presence of God. Like the man from Geresá, in the gospel lesson from Luke, when one finally encounters the presence of God, evil is dismantled, community is established, and silence is no longer a result of social isolation, but an opportunity for deeper reflection.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Duke Youth Academy for Christian Formation (DYA) for its work in guiding young people in the rituals and practices of Christian faith so that they may better understand how to live out their Christian commitments in the world. Representatives from DYA bring a baptismal basin, a chalice, and a paten to the altar.

In Durham, we remember those who contribute joy to our community culture through their artistic and creative expressions. The ushers bring forward a paintbrush.

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. If you do not plan to receive communion, you may come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

QUESTIONS PEOPLE OFTEN ASK -

WHY DO WE READ THE GOSPEL FROM THE CENTER AISLE?

This was the practice of the Western Church in ancient times, from at least the fourth century onward. The gospel has a special status because in it are recorded the very words of Jesus himself. Placing its reading at the center of our worship reflects this authority—it makes it clear the gospel stands at the very center of the Chapel's faith and life. Like the opening procession and closing recession, the gospel procession displays the pilgrim character of the church. We invite the congregation to turn to face the gospel, as an embodiment of the repentance the gospel asks of us. Duke Chapel has an interdenominational foundation: this is one way we draw on all the riches of the Church's liturgical heritage to enhance our encounter with the living God.
