In today’s Gospel reading, we twice see Jesus’ miraculous power to heal. After surrendering to Jesus, a woman is released from twelve years of suffering, and Jairus’ daughter is raised from the dead. The crowd was overcome with amazement to be in the presence of the living God. Yet the Apostle Paul reminds us how the Son of God became incarnate and poor, so that through faith we might all receive the good gifts of our heavenly Father. Our response to receiving Jesus’ life, healing, and forgiveness therefore is to love as he has first loved us.
The congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent during the prelude. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the basement of Baldwin.

Gracious Spirit, Dwell With Me

Adoro te devote

arr. K. Lee Scott
(b. 1950)

Gracious Spirit, dwell with me, I would gracious be;
Help me now thy grace to see, I would be like thee;
And, with words that help and heal, thy life would mine reveal;
And, with actions bold and meek, for Christ my Savior speak.
Truthful Spirit, dwell with me, I would truthful be;
Help me now thy truth to see, I would be like thee;
And, with wisdom kind and clear, thy life in mine appear;
And whatever I can be give to him who gave me thee.

Holy Spirit, dwell with me, I would holy be;
Show thy mercy tenderly, make me more like thee;
Separate from sin, I would choose and cherish all things good,
And whatever I can be give to him who gave me thee.

Mighty Spirit, dwell with me, I would mighty be;
Help me now thy power to see, I would be like thee;
Against all weapons hell can wield, be thou my strength and shield;
Let thy word my weapon be, Lord, thine the victory.

Today’s Flowers—The flowers this morning are given to the glory of God by the Nan & Taylor Cole Chapel Endowment.

Today’s Offering—All of today’s cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for an emergency fund for disaster and recovery support for communities in our world that are affected by unexpected and sudden disaster (natural or otherwise). Your generosity enables the Chapel to respond quickly with financial support in times of acute crisis.

Today’s Guest Preacher—Susan J. Dunlap, Ph.D., is an ordained Presbyterian minister and Adjunct Professor of Pastoral Theology at Duke Divinity School. In addition, she is the coordinator of the M.Div./M.S.W. dual degree program that the Divinity School shares with the University of North Carolina. She also serves as the volunteer chaplain at Urban Ministries of Durham. As a pastor in Baltimore, MD, she served a small church for four years before returning to school for a Th.M. from Duke and a Ph.D. from Princeton Theological Seminary. She is the author of two books and is currently working on a third book.

Today we are saying thank you to the Chapel’s outgoing Director of Development, Beth Gettys Sturkey. After five years on the Chapel staff, Beth will become the Senior Major Gifts Director at Duke’s Sanford School of Public Policy, beginning July 1. Beth will continue to be a member of the Congregation, and we are grateful for her continued service in many areas, including the Chapel Choir. We wish her well in her new job, and invite you all to pray for her during this time of transition.

Upcoming serving opportunities are Sunday, July 12, at 5:15 p.m. and Wednesday, August 26, at 6:15 p.m. Volunteers provide the “main course,” nourishment for the body (each volunteer server/couple brings two cooked party-size lasagnas) and for the spirit, through fellowship with the shelter residents and other members and friends of the Congregation. Shelter residents do all the cleanup. Please contact Cricket Scovil if you are able to help: scovilj@aol.com or 919-286-0556. First-timers are welcome! We need at least ten volunteers and twenty cooked lasagnas each time we serve.
Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

1. Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, King of creation!
   O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation!
   All ye who hear, now to his temple draw near; join me in glad adoration!

2. Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth!
   Bears thee on eagle's wings, e'er in his keeping main!
   God's care enfoldeth all, whose true good he upholds.
   Hast thou not known his sustaining power?

3. Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee!
   Sure is his goodness and mercy here daily and fore thee.
   Then to thy need God as a mother doth forebear thee.
   Do, who with his love dost befriend thee.

4. Praise to the Lord, who doth nourish thy life and restore thee!
   Fitting thee well for the tasks that are ever before him!
   Let the amen sound from his people abroad.
   Speed, spreading the wings of grace o'er thee.

5. Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore thee!
   All that hath life and breath, come now with praise to be;
   All ye who hear, now to his temple draw near; join me in glad adoration!
   Gain, gladly forever adore him.
