Ezekiel's Vision of Merkaba
Matthäus Merian, c. 1650

This week begins our journey through the book of Ezekiel in our weekly, Sunday morning worship services. Today we hear of Ezekiel's call to proclaim the message of God in word and through symbolic acts to the Israelites following the exile into Babylon. Ezekiel receives a word from the Lord, written on a scroll, that he was commanded to eat prior to proclaiming the word to the people. Though the message was one of lamentation, mourning, and woe, the word of the Lord was to Ezekiel as sweet as honey. In the Gospel lesson, Jesus commands the disciples to go and faithfully proclaim the message of God's kingdom to the people, regardless of how they would receive it.

SUMMER SCRIPTURE LESSONS | As Christians who worship in a liturgical tradition, we follow the Revised Common Lectionary for our scripture texts throughout the year. This three-year cycle of scriptures follows the Christian calendar, and passages are selected to match the season of the Church year and the themes present therein. This summer during Ordinary Time, we will be following a different selection of texts. Together, we will read the book of Ezekiel as our primary scripture lessons in our Sunday services, and we will invite you to read Ezekiel with us outside of our Sunday services. Reading through the book together will allow our community to learn from scripture passages that we do not regularly encounter through the lectionary in our worship services and will open us to receive from a broader range of the scriptural canon; this approach is called lectio continua. We hope you will join us through the summer as we read, study, and learn from the book of Ezekiel. The reading for June 16 is 4:1-7:27 and for June 23 is 8:1-11:25.

SUMMER MUSIC | Chapel Music is hosting four concerts this month in Duke Chapel and in the Divinity School's Goodson Chapel. The choir of King's College London and the UNC Sackbut Ensemble present an hourlong performance of seventeenth-century German sacred music on Tuesday, June 18, at 5:00 p.m. in Goodson Chapel. As part of the Chorworks Young Artists Program, the Chapel's Dr. Philip Cave will lead three informal performances of French sacred music: a program of a cappella renaissance motets on Friday, June 21, at 8:00 p.m. in Duke Chapel; baroque motets with organ on Saturday, June 22, at 6:00 p.m. in Goodson Chapel; and a mass and motets with orchestra on Sunday, June 23, at 2:00 p.m. in Goodson Chapel.

ACCESS TO THE CHAPEL THIS SUMMER | This summer access to Duke Chapel is limited due to construction and maintenance projects. The Chapel's summer open hours are Monday–Friday, 5:30 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday, 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. As usual, the Chapel will also be closed to the public at times on the weekends for weddings, so please check the Chapel website for up-to-date information before visiting—chapel.duke.edu.

HUMANITARIAN SERVICE AWARD NOMINATIONS | The Chapel's Humanitarian Service Award recognizes individuals with a commitment to service and simplicity. The award is inspired by the lives of two Duke professors: Dr. George R. Parkerson Jr. and the late Dr. C. Eric Lincoln. The recipient of the award receives a grant of between $1,500 and $3,000 to further humanitarian efforts. Nominate someone by July 19 at chapel.duke.edu/ServiceAward.
