BRIDGING FAITH & LEARNING

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Fourth Sunday after Pentecost
Sunday, June 17, 2018, 11:00 a.m.

Harvest in Provence,
Vincent van Gogh, 1888

In this morning's reading from Deuteronomy, Moses urges Israel neither to exalt themselves nor to forget that God is the source of all their covenant blessings. He calls God's people to remember the Lord's sovereign acts and willingness to test and humble them for their own good, while solemnly warning that Israel will surely perish if they do not obey the voice of the Lord their God. In Luke's Gospel, we hear Jesus instituting the Lord's Supper and establishing the new covenant in his blood. We remember how the Son of God died for the people of God, humbly giving his broken body to us and for us, that through faith we might receive his resurrection life.

Let My People Seek Their Freedom

EBENEZER

*Prayers of Confession and Words of Assurance | In unison:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

Offertory Anthem

As Truly as God is Our Father

William Mathias
(1934–1992)

As truly as God is our Father, so just as truly is he our Mother.

In our Father, God Almighty, we have our being;

In our merciful Mother we are remade and restored.

Our fragmented lives are knit together.

And by giving and yielding ourselves, through grace,

To the Holy Spirit we are made whole.

It is I, the strength and goodness of Fatherhood.

It is I, the wisdom of Motherhood.

It is I, the light and grace of holy love.

It is I, the Trinity.

I am the sovereign goodness in all things.

It is I who teach you to love.

It is I who teach you to desire.

It is I who am the reward of all true desiring.

All shall be well, and all manner of thing shall be well. Amen.

—Julian of Norwich (c. 1342–1416)

Sancti, Venite

David Hogan
(1949–1996)

Draw nigh and take the body of the Lord,
And drink the Holy blood for you out poured.
He, with heavenly bread makes them that hunger whole.
Gives living waters to the thirsty soul.
Offered was he for greatest and for least,
Himself the victim, himself the priest.

WELCOME TO DUKE CHAPEL | If you have questions about the ministries of Duke Chapel or the Congregation at Duke Chapel, please stop by the Welcome Desk in the narthex. Those staffing the table will be happy to answer your questions.

CHAPEL TOUR | For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today's docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.

SUMMER CHOIRS | Today's service is led by Duke Chamber Singers, an ensemble made up of singers from Duke Vespers Ensemble and Evensong Singers. If you are interested in participating in our choirs during the summer break, please visit <https://chapel.duke.edu/worship/music/chapel-choir> for more information.

SUMMER SCRIPTURE LESSONS | As Christians who worship in a liturgical tradition, we follow the Revised Common Lectionary for our scripture texts throughout the year. This three-year cycle of scriptures follows the Christian calendar, and passages are selected to match the season of the Church year and the themes present therein. This summer during Ordinary Time, we will be following a different selection of texts. Together, we will read the book of Deuteronomy as our primary scripture lessons in our Sunday services, and our preachers will be preaching from Deuteronomy throughout the summer. Reading and listening together will allow our community to learn from scripture passages that we do not regularly encounter through the lectionary in our worship services and will open us to receive from a broader range of the scriptural canon; this approach is called lectio continua. We hope you will join us through the summer as we read, study, and learn from the book of Deuteronomy.

LECTIO CONTINUA LESSONS | We invite you to read Deuteronomy with us outside of our Sunday services. For the month of June, we invite you to read the passages on the following schedule before the date listed: June 24 (9:1–11:30).

SUMMER MAINTENANCE AND REPAIRS | This summer the Chapel has repairs and maintenance scheduled on windows, the Flentrop organ, and our sound system. The various projects begin in June and run through August. Thank you for accommodating the inconveniences of making the repairs and improvements.

CELEBRATION OF MINISTRY | Andrew Phillips, Assistant Pastor to the Congregation, will conclude his ministry with the Congregation on June 21. Immediately following worship today there will be a lunch to recognize Andrew's ministry in the Alumni Memorial Common Room in the Divinity school. Following lunch, there will be a 2:00 p.m. worship service in the Chapel to mark the conclusion of his ministry here. All are welcome to attend.

JOB OPENING | The Chapel is currently conducting a search for a new Communications Specialist. For more details and instructions on how to apply, search for requisition number 101142BR on the Duke HR jobs website.
