BRIDGING FAITH & LEARNING

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Second Sunday After Pentecost
Sunday, June 23, 2019, 11:00 a.m.

Prophet Elijah on Mount Horeb
Daniele da Volterra, c. 1560

In the lesson from First Kings, Elijah spends 40 days wandering in the desert and has a dramatic encounter with thunder, lightning, and earthquake atop Mt. Horeb (another name for Mt. Sinai). Through it all Elijah listens for the Lord until he receives instruction to return to the wilderness. In the lesson from Ezekiel, the Lord instructs Ezekiel to create a battle scene using a brick, sticks, dirt, and an iron plate as a sign to the people of Jerusalem of God's judgment. In the gospel lesson from Luke, Jesus demonstrates his judgment against that which oppresses. Jesus sets a man from the Gerasenes free from the demons that had imprisoned him. In the man's liberation, evil is dismantled, community is established, and the Lord receives the praise.

Be Thou My Vision

arr. Alice Parker
(b. 1925)

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
naught be all else to me, save that thou art.
Thou my best thought, by day or by night,
waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.

Be thou my wisdom, and thou my true word;
I ever with thee and thou with me, Lord;
thou and thou only, first in my heart,
great God of heaven, my treasure thou art.

Great God of heaven, my victory won,
may I reach heaven's joys, O bright heaven's Sun!
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

Performing music of various cultures and genres, Charlotte-based YVOTC exists to provide exceptional choral music education to children from 8-18 regardless of race, creed or socio-economic station. Students increase their understanding of musical concepts and context in today's world. Chorworks Young Artists program has been holding a week-long workshop on early choral music led by Dr. Philip Cave. We welcome some members this morning, and the whole ensemble of singers and orchestra will give a performance of French sacred music today at 2:00pm in Goodson Chapel.

GUEST PREACHER | Today's Boyles guest preacher is The Rev. Pam Driesell. She began her ordained ministry in 1999 as the organizing pastor of a new church plant for the Northeast Georgia Presbytery near Athens, Georgia. When that plant chartered as Oconee Presbyterian Church in 2001, Rev. Driesell was called as their first pastor. She served in that capacity until 2010, when she was called as the fourth senior pastor of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Atlanta. She also presently serves on the board of Columbia Theological Seminary. Rev. Driesell is a graduate of James Madison University, Hollins University, and Princeton Theological Seminary, where she was awarded the James T. Galloway Prize in Expository Preaching.

SATURDAY SERVICE PROJECT | Volunteers are needed on Saturday, June 29, from 9:00 a.m. to 12-noon at the Food Bank of Central and Eastern North Carolina. Volunteers will be bagging or sorting food for distribution and will be working in the comfortable air-conditioned warehouse. All those age twelve and older are welcome to participate; volunteers are required to wear closed-toe shoes for safety purposes. The Food Bank is located at 2700 Angier Avenue, Durham. For more information, contact the Congregation office at 919-684-3917.

SHELTER DINNER VOLUNTEERS NEEDED | Volunteers are needed for monthly lasagna dinners at the Urban Ministries Shelter, located at 410 Liberty Street, Durham. Please contact Cricket Scovil (scovilj@aol.com) to volunteer on Sunday, July 14, from 5:15 p.m. to 7:00, or Wednesday, August 28, from 6:15 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Detailed instructions will be provided.

SUMMER SCRIPTURE LESSONS | Throughout the summer, we will read the book of Ezekiel as our primary scripture lessons in our Sunday services, and we invite you to read Ezekiel with us outside of our Sunday services. Reading through the book together will allow our community to learn from scripture passages that we do not regularly encounter through the lectionary in our worship services and will open us to receive from a broader range of the scriptural canon; this approach is called lectio continua. We hope you will join us through the summer as we read, study, and learn from the book of Ezekiel. The reading for June 30 is 8:1-11:25 and July 7 is 12:1-15:8.

LITURGY MODIFICATION | From its founding, Duke Chapel has been an interdenominational place of worship. In an effort to engage and reflect the diversity and breadth of our ecumenical Christian practice in worship, we will include the Gospel procession only during specific seasons of the liturgical year. Starting July 7, this practice will be included during the seasons of Advent and Christmas and then again in Lent through Easter Day. During these seasons, the Gospel procession will highlight the centrality of Christ's story, appropriate to these distinct seasons. All of our worship centers on Jesus Christ, and it is Christ who is greater than any one liturgical practice. May all of our worship give glory to God alone.

ACCESS TO THE CHAPEL THIS SUMMER | This summer, access to Duke Chapel is limited due to construction and maintenance projects. The Chapel's summer open hours are Monday–Friday, 5:30 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday, 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. As usual, the Chapel will also be closed to the public at times on the weekends for weddings, so please check the Chapel website for up-to-date information before visiting—chapel.duke.edu.

HUMANITARIAN SERVICE AWARD NOMINATIONS | The Chapel's Humanitarian Service Award recognizes individuals with a commitment to service and simplicity. The award is inspired by the lives of two Duke professors: Dr. George R. Parkerson Jr. and the late Dr. C. Eric Lincoln. The recipient of the award receives a grant of between $1,500 and $3,000 to further humanitarian efforts. Nominate someone by July 19 at chapel.duke.edu/ServiceAward.

NEW CHORAL ALBUM | Dr. Philip Cave, the Chapel's associate conductor for Chapel Music and interim director of Chapel Choir, has released a new album Cantiones sacrae with the English vocal ensemble Magnificat, which he founded and directs. The album features Latin motets by the seventeenth-century German composer Heinrich Schütz. Learn more at www.linnrecords.com.

CHAPEL ORGANIST'S NEW ALBUM | Chapel Organist Christopher Jacobson, FRCO, released a new album this week titled Saint-Saëns - Poulenc - Widor - Works for Organ and Orchestra. It was recorded at the Victoria Hall in Geneva, Switzerland, with conductor Kazuki Yamada and the Orchestre de la Suisse

FMF BACK PEW COLLECTION | Families Moving Forward, a shelter for homeless families, is seeking help in sending children to summer camp. A special camp is free for one week for these children, but they have certain things they need to bring with them. Today and next Sunday, June 30, please consider making a contribution to this cause by placing a Target gift card or check made out to the "Congregation at Duke University Chapel" with "FMF camp" on the memo line in the offering plate. Volunteers will purchase the needed items such as beach towels, flip flops and swim goggles for each child to take with them to camp. On Saturday, July 13 volunteers are needed to shop for the children. Please contact Jane Fellows or 919-949-9090 if you can help with shopping.
